

American Labor & American Democracy

William English Walling

With a new introduction by Richard Schneirov

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

CONTENTS

TRANSACTION INTRODUCTION	xi
EDITOR'S INTRODUCTION	xlix
FOREWORD	1
INTRODUCTORY	7
The Old Democracy—The Heritage from Jackson and Lincoln—The New Economic Revolution—Business Consolidation—Organized Labor and Other Democratic Forces—Growth of the American Movement—Legal Status and Rights of Labor—Social Philosophy of American Labor
Volume I: LABOR AND POLITICS
PREFATORY NOTE	25
I LABOR ENTERS POLITICS IN ITS OWN WAY	27
Early Doubts as to the Efficacy of Political Action—Labor's Magna Charta—The Bill of Grievances of 1906—The Initiation of the Non-partisan Policy—The Non-partisan Policy Successfully Applied to Congressional Elections
II POLITICAL RESULTS—THE FIRST CROP	43
The Clayton Anti-Trust Amendment—Woodrow Wilson and Labor—Reaction Following the World War—The Non-partisan Political Policy Re-affirmed
III LABOR TURNS FROM PARTIES TO THE PUBLIC	53
The Presidential Campaign of 1920: Harding's Election—Principles versus Parties—Measures Indorsed by Labor—Labor Disappointed in Election

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
IV THE FARMER-LABOR ENTENTE	66
The Farmers' Non-partisan League Experiment—Non-partisan Participation in Primaries of Both Parties—The Farmer-Labor Movement of 1920 and 1922—Agricultural and Industrial Workers' Status Similar
V A NON-PARTISAN PROGRESSIVE CONGRESS	95
The Renomination of La Follette and Other Progressive Senators in 1922—The Conference for Progressive Political Action
VI THE LA FOLLETTE CANDIDACY—A LABOR-PROGRESSIVE EXPERIENCE	110
Labor Not Headed Toward a Third Party—Labor's Fifteen Points and What Happened to Them—The Socialist Supporters of La Follette Drive Away Labor Conservatives
VII THE NON-PARTISAN POLICY MEETS A SEVERE TEST SUCCESSFULLY	121
Progressive Republicans and Progressive Democrats—The Labor Bloc in Congress—The Two Bi-partisan Blocs—Conservative and Progressive—Conflict Between the Executive and the Legislative at Washington
VIII THE NON-PARTISAN POLICY IN ITS LATER DEVELOPMENTS	137
The Old Slogan: "Reward Friends and Punish Enemies"—Project for Capturing Both Major Parties—Independent Candidatures Frowned Upon—The Prospects of a Realignment of the Two Parties—The Future of the Non-partisan Policy
IX BLOC VERSUS PARTY GOVERNMENT	154
Labor Accepts and Defends the Two-party System as Moderated by the Bloc—Partisan Politics and Privilege—A Progressive Majority within the Opposition Party

CONTENTS

CHAPTER		PAGE
X	THE LABOR PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM: THE APPEAL TO THE CONSUMER	170
	Liberalism and Progressivism: Are They in Conflict?—The Appeal to the Consumer—The Consumer's Chief Protection: Publicity—The Consolidated Profiteers Fight Publicity and Investigation—The Need for Some Measure of Governmental Control Over Necessities
XI	THE LABOR-PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM: THE APPEALS TO THE PRODUCER AND THE CITIZEN	190
	Conservation of National Resources—The Farmer-Labor Platform—Reforms That Benefit All Citizens—Democratic Taxation: for Graduated Income and Inheritance Taxes—For Federal Subsidies to States for Social Purposes
XII	RISING WAGES AS PART OF A SOCIAL PROGRAM	212
	Labor Rejects Fixed Wage Status—Labor Insists upon a Fair Division of the Product for All Producers—The Revolutionary Effects of Immigration Restriction—The New Wage Policy
	Volume II: LABOR AND GOVERNMENT
	INTRODUCTORY	3
I	IS AMERICAN LABOR BECOMING CAPITALISTIC?	11
	Labor Banking and Labor Insurance—"Employee Ownership" as Labor Sees It—Labor Capitalism an Illusion—Profit-sharing, Real and Nominal
II	LABOR CO-OPERATES WITH CAPITAL, BUT REFUSES COMBINATION	29
	"Employee Representation" and Company Unions—Union-Management Co-operation—The Baltimore and Ohio Plan
III	LABOR CHALLENGES THE DOMINATION OF CAPITALISM	48
	Does American Labor Accept the Capitalist System?

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
—Financial Domination Injurious to Production— Industrial Democracy Through Evolution: A Step at a Time
IV THE SOCIAL STRUGGLE	58
American Labor Opposed to the Class-struggle Doc- trine—American Labor Takes Its Stand with All Who Perform Useful Social Functions
V PROFITS—SOCIAL AND ANTI-SOCIAL	70
Our Industrial Autocracy—Labor's Attack on Il- legitimate Profits—The Struggle Against the Finan- cial Oligarchy
VI THE GOVERNMENT OF INDUSTRY	82
Labor's Demand for a Voice in Industry—Self-de- termination for Industry—The New Social Structure
VII ATTEMPT TO ISOLATE LABOR FROM GOVERNMENT	103
The Competence of Government in Industry Ques- tioned—Simultaneous and Related Changes Contem- plated in Industry and Government—Labor Refuses to Condemn Economic Functions of Government
VIII LABOR DEMANDS ITS SHARE IN THE BENEFITS OF GOV- ERNMENT	112
Capitalist Attempts to Restore Competition in In- dustry by Government Action—Labor's View of the Scope and Limits of Government Intervention—Cap- italist Opposition to Government Control of Monop- oly—Organized Business and Government
IX GOVERNMENT OPERATION WEIGHED AND FOUND WANTING	132
Labor Favors Government Operation of Certain Public Utilities Only: The Water Power Question— The Plumb Plan for the Democratic Operation of Railroads—The Coal Miners and Governmental In- tervention in the Coal Industry

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
X THE SOLUTION: SOCIAL SUPERVISION AND CONTROL . . .	150
The Movement to Democratize and Industrialize the Economic Boards—Labor and Big Business—Eco- nomic Decentralization versus Political Decentral- ization
INDEX	167