

The Handbook of International Crisis Communication Research

Edited by

Andreas Schwarz,
Matthew W. Seeger; and
Claudia Auer

WILEY Blackwell

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Searching for an Integrative Approach to International Crisis Communication Research
1. Significance and Structure of International Risk and Crisis Communication Research: Toward an Integrative Approach Andreas Schwarz, Matthew W. Seeger, and Claudia Auer	1
Part I Disciplinary Foundations for International Crisis Communication Research	11
Political Science
2. Political Science Research on Crises and Crisis Communications Sandra IC Schneider and Marty P. Jordan	13
Management and Economics
3. Delving into the Roots of Crises: The Genealogy of Surprise Christophe Roux-Dufort	24
Psychology
4. The Psychology of Crisis Communication M. Brooke Rogers and Julia M. Pearce	34
Sociology
5. Sociological Foundations of Crisis Communication Martin Voss and Daniel F. Lorenz	45
Anthropology
6. "Crisis" in Social Anthropology: Rethinking a Missing Concept Stefan Beck and Michi Knecht	56
Communication: Toward an Integrative Approach
7. Communication – Conclusions for an Integrative Approach to International Crisis Communication Research Claudia Auer, Andreas Schwarz, and Matthew W. Seeger	66
Part II Actors and Institutional Communicators in International Crises	73
War
8. Military, Government, and Media Management in Wartime ICathrin Schleicher	75

Terrorism

9. Crisis Communication and Terrorist Attacks
Owen Hargie and Pauline Irving

Natural Disasters/Pandemia

10. Communication Concerning Disasters and Pandemics: Coproducing
Community Resilience and Crisis Response
Jenni Hyvarinen and Marita Vos

Organizational Crisis

11. International Organizational Crisis Communication: A Simple Rules
Approach to Managing Crisis Complexity
Robert R. Ulmer and Andrew S. Pyle

Political Crisis

12. Conceptualizing Political Crisis and the Role of Public Diplomacy in Crisis Communication Research
Claudia Auer

Part III The Role of the Media in the Construction of International Crises

War

13. The Role of the Media in the Discursive Construction of Wars
Stig Arne Nohrstedt

Terrorism

14. Terrorism and the Role of the Media
Liane Rothenberger

Natural Disasters/Pandemia

15. Media Framing of Disasters: Implications for Disaster Response Communicators
J. Suzanne Horsley

Organizational Crisis

16. Organizational Crisis and the News Media
Mario Scbranz and Mark Eisenegger

Political Crisis

17. Political, Social, and Economic Crises in Public Communication
Kurt Imhof

Part IV Domestic and International Audiences in the Context of Crisis CommunicationWar

18. War, Media, and Public Opinion: A Battle for Hearts and Minds
Michel M. Haigh

Terrorism

19. Terrorism – Orchestrated Staging and Indicator of Crisis
Wolfgang Frindte, Daniel Geschke, and Sebastian Wagner

Natural Disasters/Pandemia

20. Reoccurring Challenges and Emerging Threats: Crises and the New Millennium
Patric R. Spence and Kenneth A. Lachlan

Organizational Crisis

21. Domestic and International Audiences of Organizational Crisis Communication: State of the Art and Implications for Cross-Cultural Crisis Communication 224
An-Sofie Claeys and Andreas Schwarz

Political Crisis

22. Environmental Crises and the Public: Media Audiences in the Context of Environmental and Natural Threats and Disasters 236
Jens Wotting

Part V The State of Crisis Communication Research Around the Globe 249*Crisis Communication Research in Africa

23. Crisis Communication Research in South Africa 251
Herman Wasserman and Nathalie Hyde-Clarke
24. Crisis Communication Research in Nigeria 259
Amiso M. George

Crisis Communication Research in Asia

25. Crisis Communication Research in the Chinese Mainland 269
Ti-Hui Christine Huang, Fang Wu, Tang Cheng, and Joanne Chen Lyu
26. Crisis Communication Research in Singapore 283
Augustine Pang
27. Crisis Communication Research in South Korea 292
Sora Kim
28. Risk and Crisis Communication Research in India 302
Ganga S. Dhanesh and Krishnamurthy Sriramesh

Crisis Communication Research in the Middle East

29. Crisis Communication Research in the Middle East & North Africa (MENA): Echoes of Normalizing Historical Crisis 313
Ibrahim Saleh
30. Crisis Communication Research in Israel: Growth and Gaps 327
Eytan Gilboa and Clila Magen

Crisis Communication Research in Australia and Oceania

31. Crisis Communication Research in Australia 337
Chris Galloway
32. Crisis Communication Research in Aotearoa/New Zealand 347
Ted Zorn, Margie Comrie, and Susan Fountaine

Crisis Communication Research in Western Europe

33. Crisis Communication Research in Germany 357
Andreas Schwarz
34. Crisis Communication Research in Northern Europe 373
Finn Frandsen and Winni Johansen

Crisis Communication Research in Eastern Europe

35. Crisis Communication Research in Eastern Europe: The Cases of Poland and Hungary 384
Gyorgy Szondi and Pawet Surowiec
36. Crisis Management and Communication Research in Russia 397
Sergei A. Samoilenko

Crisis Communication Research in Latin America

37. Crisis and Risk Communication Research in Colombia 411
Jesus Arroyave and Ana Maria Erazo-Coronado

Crisis Communication Research in North America

38. Crisis Communication Research in the United States 422
Matthew W. Seeger, Alyssa Grace Sloan, and Timothy L. Sellnow

Part VI Challenges and Topics of Future Research on Crisis Communication 435*Conceptual and Methodological Challenges of Risk and Crisis Communication in the Twenty-first Century

39. Paradigms of Risk and Crisis Communication in the Twenty-first Century 437
Robert L. Heath and Michael J. Palenchar
40. Global Product Recall Communications and Regulatory Focus Theory 447
Daniel Laufer
41. Methodological Challenges of International Crisis Communication Research 456
W. Timothy Coombs

New Technologies in International Crisis Communication

42. New Technologies and Applications in International Crisis Communication and Disaster Management 465
Andreas Schwarz, Jean-Christophe Binetti, Wolfgang Broil, and Andreas Mitschele-Thiel
43. The Future Role of Social Media in International Crisis Communication 478
Chiara Valentini and Dean ICruckeberg

Preparation for International and Cross-cultural Crises

44. Preparing for International and Cross-cultural Crises: The Role of Competing Voices, Inclusivity, and the Interplay of Responsibility in Global Organizations 489
Timothy L. Sellnow and Shari R. Veil
45. Putting Research into Practice: Models for Education and Application of International Crisis Communication Research 499
Alice Srugies

Summing Up and Looking Ahead: The Future of International Crisis Communication Research

46. Risk, Crisis, and the Global Village: International Perspectives 510
Matthew W. Seeger, Claudia Auer, and Andreas Schwarz

- Index 518