

Emerging Multinationals in Emerging Markets

Edited by

RAVI RAMAMURTI

AND

JITENDRA V. SINGH

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of figures	page xi
List of tables	xiii
List of abbreviations	xv
List of contributors	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix
Part I Introduction	1
1 Why study emerging-market multinationals? RAVI RAMAMURTI	3
2 Third World multinationals: A look back LOUIS T. WEILS JR.	23
3 Theoretical aspects of MNEs from emerging economies ALAN M. RUGMAN	42
4 Does firm ownership matter? POEs vs. FOEs in the developing world ALICE H. AMSDEN	64
Part II Country studies	79
5 Chinese multinationals: Emerging through new global gateways PETER J. WILLIAMSON AND MING ZENG	81
6 Indian multinationals: Generic internationalization strategies RAVI RAMAMURTI AND JITENDRA V. SINGH	110
7 Russian multinationals: Natural resource champions DANIEL J. MCCARTHY, SHEILA M. PUFFER, AND OLEG S. VIKHANSKI	167

8	Brazilian multinationals: Surfing the waves of internationalization	200
	AFONSO FLEURY AND MARIA TEREZA LEME FLEURY
9	South African multinationals: Building on a unique legacy	244
	ANDREA GOLDSTEIN AND WILSON PRICHARD
10	Mexican multinationals: Insights from CEMEX	280
	DONALD R. LESSARD AND RAFEL LUCEA
11	Thai multinationals: Entering the big league	312
	PAVIDA PANANOND
12	Israeli multinationals: Competing from a small open economy	352
	YAIR AHARON I
	Part III Conclusions	397
13	What have we learned about emerging-market MNEs?	399
	RAVI RAMAMURTI
	Index	427