

Contents

Comment	vii
Preface	ix
1. Newark, New Jersey: 1932-1937	1
2. Newark, 1937-1941: Old Enough for School	17
3. The Family I Come From	27
4. Millbum I: Until High School, 1941-1945	45
5. Millbum II: Until High School, 1941-1945	63
6. High School Years in Millbum	75
7. My Mind as a Young Person	93
8. On the Job as a Kid	99
9. College	103
10. College Summers and Midshipman Cruises	119
11. In the Fleet	129
12. Troopin' and Stompin' with the Girenes	147
13. Working in the Advertising Business	161
14. Chicago and the University of Chicago: I	175
15. The University of Chicago: II	185
16. In and Out of the Mail-Order Business	191
17. Urbana and the University of Illinois I: Starting 1963	201
18. Teaching at the University	215
19. Research 1963-1967: Advertising Economics, Research Methods, and Other Topics	223
20. Research on Population Economics	237
21. Reaching the Public with Facts about Population and Resources	259

vi A Life Against the Grain

22. Philosophical Analyses of Basic Conceptual Issues: Causality	269
23. The Joy of Studying Immigration	277
24. The Airline Oversales Auction System	289
25. My Depression and the Theory of Negative Self- Comparisons: The Story	297
26. Why do so Few Nonreligious (and Religious) People Enjoy a Sabbath?	315
27. How did My Economics Get to be What It Is?	323
28. This I Believe: Values and Attitudes	339
Index	347