

Taking Southeast Asia to Market

Commodities, Nature, and People in the Neoliberal Age

Edited by

JOSEPH NEVINS

and

NANCY LEE PELUSO

Cornell University Press Ithaca & London

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

List of Abbreviations xi

Introduction: Commoditization in Southeast Asia /

Joseph Nevins and Nancy Lee Peluso

Part I New Commodities, Scales, and Sources of Capital

- 1 Contingent Commodities: Mobilizing Labor in and beyond Southeast Asian Forests 27
Anna Tsing
- 2 What's New with the Old? Scalar Dialectics and the Reorganization of Indonesia's Timber Industry 43
PaulK. Gellert
- 3 Contesting "Flexibility": Networks of Place, Gender, and Class in Vietnamese Workers' Resistance 56
Angie Ngoc Trdn
- 4 Worshipping Work: Producing Commodity Producers
in Contemporary Indonesia 73
Daromir Rudnyckyj

Part II New Enclosures and Territorializations

- 5 China and the Production of Forestlands in Lao PDR: A Political Ecology of Transnational Enclosure 91
Keith Barney
- jb* Water Power: Machines, Modernizers, and Meta-Commoditization on the Mekong River 108
David Biggs
- 7 Contested Commodifications: Struggles over Nature in a National Park 124
Tania Murray Li
- 8 Sovereignty in Burma after the Entrepreneurial Turn: Mosaics of Control, Commodified Spaces, and Regulated Violence in Contemporary Burma 140
Ken MacLean

Part III New Markets, New Socionatures, New Actors

- 9 Old Markets, New Commodities: Aquarian Capitalism in Indonesia 161
Dorian Fougères
- 10 Production of People and Nature, Rice, and Coffee: The Semendo People in South Sumatra and Lampung 176
Lesley Potter
- I I The Message Is the Market: Selling Biotechnology and Nation in Malaysia 191
Sandra Smeltzer
- I 2 New Concepts, New Natures? Revisiting Commodity Production in Southern Thailand 206
Peter Vandergeest
- Concluding Comparisons: Products and Processes of Commoditization in Southeast Asia 225
Joseph Nevins and Nancy Lee Peluso

CONTENTS./ vii

Notes 231

References 241

List of Contributors 269

Index 273