

The Politics of Economic Regionalism

Sierra Leone in ECOWAS

i'

DAVID J. FRANCIS

Department of Peace Studies, University of Bradford

Contents

List of Maps	viii
List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	1
1 Economic Regionalism in West Africa	7
Introduction	7
Political Economy of West Africa	8
Evolution of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS)	13
Formation of ECOWAS: 1972-1975	21
Aims and Objectives, Institutional Framework and Main Features of the Treaty	23
Conceptual Framework: Modernisation, Dependency and Developmental Regionalism	29
Conclusion	34
Notes and References	36
2 Security Regionalism in West Africa	39
Introduction	39
The Creation of ECOMOG: The Liberian Crisis and the International Neglect of Africa	40
ECOWAS Political and Security Co-operation: Redefining Economic and Security Interdependence	43
ECOMOG: Peacekeeping, Peace Enforcement and Conflict Management in West Africa	49
Conceptualising ECOMOG	52
Security Regionalism in West Africa and African International Relations	57
Conclusion	59
Notes and References	59

3	ECOWAS and the New Regionalism	63
	Introduction	63
	From 'Old' Regionalism to 'New' Regionalism	63
	ECOWAS New Regionalism and the Myth of Globalisation	66
	ECOWAS and Responses to the New Regionalism	70
	Conclusion	73
	Notes and References	74
4	Sierra Leone in ECOWAS	76
	Introduction	76
	Political Economy of Sierra Leone	77
	Characterisation of State and the Politics of Decline in Sierra Leone	82
	Sierra Leone's Foreign Policy Approach to ECOWAS Regionalism	87
	Sierra Leone's Institutional Structure for ECOWAS Responsibilities	92
	The Politics of Ratification of ECOWAS Protocols and Decisions	96
	Financial and Infrastructural Obligation to ECOWAS	97
	Level of Popular Participation in ECOWAS Regionalism	100
	Conclusion	104
	Notes and References	104
5	Civil War in Sierra Leone: Interpretations	107
	Introduction	107
	Civil War in Sierra Leone	107
	ECOMOG Military Base in Sierra Leone: An Obstacle to Charles Taylor's Presidential Ambition	111
	Civil War and its Interpretations	114
	Conclusion,	120
	Notes and References	121
6	Political Economy of Diamonds and Trans-border Regionalisation	123
	Introduction	123
	Diamonds and the Politics of Underdevelopment	123
	Conflict Diamonds, Privatisation of Security and Globalisation	129
	Diamonds and Human Security in Post-war Sierra Leone	141

Conclusion	143
Notes and References	144
7 Political Implications of Sierra Leone's ECOWAS Regionalism	147
Introduction	147
Politico-Diplomatic Relevance of ECOWAS Regionalism	149
ECOWAS and the Defence of Democracy in Sierra Leone	156
ECOWAS-UN Co-operative Security in Sierra Leone	165
ECOWAS and the Erosion of National Sovereignty	178
Conclusion	184
Notes and References	185
8 Economic Implications of Sierra Leone's ECOWAS Regionalism	189
Introduction	189
Sierra Leone and the Traditional Benefits of Economic Regionalism	190
Sierra Leone and ECOWAS Trade Liberalisation Programme	196
Sierra Leone and Intra-Regional Trade	201
Free Movement and its Pressures on the Economy	204
Mano River Regionalisation: The Monkey Trade and Smuggling	206
The ASYCUDA Project and Sierra Leone's Customs Regime	209
West African Clearing House and its Impact on Sierra Leone	213
ECOWAS Trade Fair and Private Sector Participation	215
Sierra Leone and ECOWAS Regional Agricultural Development Strategy	217
Sierra Leone and ECOWAS Infrastructural Development Strategy	223
Conclusion	226
Notes and References	227
Conclusion	231
Bibliography	238
Index	249