

From Central Planning to the Market

The Transformation of the Czech Economy
1989–2004

Libor Žídek

Central European University Press
Budapest–New York

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Tables	xi
List of Figures	xix
List of Boxes	xxv
List of Acronyms	xxvii
Preface	xxix
1 SITUATION IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA AT THE END OF THE 1980s	1
1.1 Economic outcomes of the socialist regime	1
1.2 Functioning of the socialist system	7
1.2.1 Main features of the planning system	7
1.2.2 Institutions	21
2 POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT	33
2.1 Overall evaluation of the political development	45
3 TRANSFORMATION PROCESS IN GENERAL	51
3.1 Transformation strategy	57
4 REFORM MEASURES AND ECONOMIC POLICY	67
4.1 1990–1993: Basic transformation measures	67
4.2 1994–1996: Growth phase	82
4.3 1997–1999: Recession stage	99

5	BASIC ECONOMIC INDICATORS	135
5.1	1990–1992: Transformation recession	136
5.2	1993–1996: Recovery and boom	142
5.3	1997–1999: Recession	145
5.4	1999–2003: Recovery and growth	151
5.5	Output comparison	154
5.6	Unemployment	157
5.7	Inflation	162
6	EXTERNAL BALANCE	175
6.1	Foreign trade	175
6.1.1	Situation before 1989	175
6.1.2	Liberalization and subsequent development	176
6.1.3	Foreign trade development factors	183
6.1.4	Changes in foreign trade	185
6.2	Other items on the current account	190
6.2.1	Balance of services	190
6.2.2	Balance of revenues	192
6.2.3	Current transfers	193
6.3	Financial account	193
6.3.1	Foreign direct investment	194
6.3.2	Other components of the financial account	202
6.4	Balance of payments: summary	202
6.5	Migration	204
7	CHANGE OF PROPERTY RELATIONS AND PRIVATIZATION	211
7.1	Restitutions	212
7.2	Small privatization	213
7.3	Mass privatization, 1991–1994	217
7.3.1	Privatization Methods	221
7.3.2	Voucher privatization	225
7.3.3	Dispute about the mass privatization as a whole	244
7.4	Privatization after 1995	247
7.4.1	Privatization as such	247

7.4.2	Changes in ownership structure	250
7.5	Privatization results	251
8	BANKING SECTOR AND STOCK EXCHANGE	263
8.1	Banking sector before 1989	263
8.2	Banking sector development at the beginning of the transformation	265
8.2.1	New banks	265
8.2.2	Special banks	267
8.2.3	Dispute about banking loans	268
8.3	Crisis in the banking sector	271
8.4	Healing of the banking sector	278
8.4.1	Government help	278
8.4.2	Privatization of banks	280
8.5	Stock exchange	287
9	ENTERPRISES DURING TRANSFORMATION	299
9.1	Situation of enterprises at the beginning of the transformation	299
9.2	Impact of reforms on the enterprises	301
9.3	Establishing new enterprises	306
9.4	Restructuring of enterprises	308
9.4.1	Definition	308
9.4.2	Dispute about restructuring at the beginning of transformation	309
9.4.3	How did restructuring proceed?	311
9.5	Development in various spheres of business activities	314
10	DEVELOPMENT OF INSTITUTIONS	325
10.1	General institutional development	326
10.2	Development of formal versus informal institutions	331
10.3	Legal system	335
10.3.1	Development of the legal environment	335
10.3.2	Criticism of the legal environment	339

10.3.3 Law enforceability: System of courts	342
10.3.4 Measuring of the legal environment quality	343
10.4 Bankruptcy law	345
10.5 Corruption	351
10.6 Market environment: economic freedom	354
11 TRANSFORMATION IN HUNGARY	363
11.1 Long-term political development	363
11.2 Economic situation and development before 1989	364
11.3 Political development transition	369
11.4 Basis of economic transformation	371
11.4.1 Gradualist period	371
11.4.2 The Bokros package	374
11.4.3 Currency problems at the beginning of the twenty-first century	377
11.5 Privatization	380
11.6 Economic results	385
11.6.1 Economic growth	385
11.6.2 Structure of the economy	386
11.6.3 Inflation	387
11.6.4 Unemployment	389
11.6.5 External relationships	390
12 TRANSFORMATION IN POLAND	397
12.1 Long-term political development	398
12.2 Economic situation	399
12.3 Political development during the transformation	404
12.4 Basis of economic transformation	406
12.4.1 The Balcerowicz plan and the development that followed	407
12.5 Privatization	413
12.6 Development of the banking sector and the stock exchange	416
12.7 Economic results	419
12.7.1 Economic growth	419

12.7.2 Structure of the economy	422
12.7.3 Unemployment	423
12.7.4 Inflation	424
12.7.5 External relationships	426
13 FINAL ASSESSMENT	433
13.1 Broad issues	433
13.2 Specific issues	440
Bibliography	447
Index	477