

Antonio Negri

From the Factory
to the Metropolis

Essays Volume 2

Edited by Federico Tomasello

Translated by Ed Emery

polity

Contents

Preface	vii
Part I Exodus from the Factory
1 The Reappropriation of Public Space	3
2 Midway Terrains	14
3 The Multitude and the Metropolis: A Few Notes in the Form of Hypotheses for an Inquiry into the Precariat of Global Cities	24
4 Exiting from Industrial Capitalism	33
5 From the Factory to the Metropolis	41
6 Metropolis and Multitude: Inquiry Notes on Precarity in Global Cities	56
Part II Inventing the Common
7 Banlieue and City: A Philosophical View Co-authored with Jean-Marie Vincent	67
8 Democracy versus Rent	89
9 Presentation of Rem Koolhaas' 'Junkspace'	95
10 The Capital-Labour Relation in Cognitive Capitalism Co-authored with Carlo Vercellone	102
11 Inventing the Common of Humanity Co-authored with Judith Revel	112

12	The Commune of Social Cooperation: Interview with Federico Tomasello on Questions Regarding the Metropolis	117
13	The Common Lung of the Metropolis: Interview with Federico Tomasello	135
14	The Habitat of General Intellect: A Dialogue between Antonio Negri and Federico Tomasello on Living in the Contemporary Metropolis	141
Part III First Fruits of the New Metropolis
15	Reflections on 'Manifesto for an Accelerationist Politics'	159
16	Notes on the Abstract Strike	169
17	From the Factory to the Metropolis . . . and Back Again	177
	Origin of the Texts	185