

Francois C. BELLANGER

Could the Swiss Provisions on Money Laundering be a Valid Implementation of Community Law ?

EUROPEAN INTERUNIVERSITY PRESS
Brussels
1995

Table of Contents

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	13
CHAPTER 1 : The International Framework	17
CHAPTER 2 : The Swiss Provisions on Money Laundering	21
CHAPTER 3 : Directive 91/308 on Money Laundering	27
A. The Scope of Directive 91/308	27
1. The Definition of Money Laundering	27
a) Community Law	27
b) Swiss Law	30
2. The Institutions on which Member States have to impose Duties	33
a) Community Law	33
b) Swiss Law	34
i) Art.305fer SCC	34
ii) The Federal banking Law	36
iii) Draft Law on Money Laundering	37
B. The Content of Directive 91/308	38
1. The Duty to prohibit Money Laundering	38
a) Community Law	38
b) Swiss Law	40
2. The Duty to ensure Identification of the Customers	41
a) Community Law	41
b) Swiss Law	44
3. The Duty to keep Evidence	49
a) Community Law	49
b) Swiss Law	50

4. The Duty of the Diligence in Case of Suspicion	50
a) Community Law	50
b) Swiss Law	52
5. The Duty of Cooperation	53
a) Community Law	53
i) Extent of the Duty for Credit and Financial Institutions	53
ii) Extent of the Duty for Supervising Authorities	55
b) Swiss Law	56
i) Extent of the Duty for Credit and Financial Institutions	56
ii) Extent of the Duty for Supervising Authorities	58
6. The Duty to have Adequate Internal Control and Training	58
7. The Duty to create a Contact Committee	59

CONCLUSION 61

BIBLIOGRAPHY

I. LEGAL ACTS 63

1. International Law	63
2. Community Law	63
a) Preparatory Acts	64
b) Acts into Force	64
3. Swiss Law	64
a) Preparatory Acts	64
i) EEA	64
ii) Criminal Law	65
iii) Administrative Law	66
b) Acts into Force	66
i) Criminal Law	66
ii) Banking Law	66

II. WRITERS 67