

Changing Lanes in China

Foreign Direct Investment, Local Governments, and Auto Sector Development

ERIC THUN

*Saïd Business School and Brasenose College
University of Oxford*

5

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	page ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Preface	xiii

PART I. INTRODUCTION

1. Local Governments, FDI, and Industrial Development	3
2. The View from the Center	48

PART II. DEVELOPMENT IN A PROTECTED MARKET

3. Coordinating Development in the Auto Sector	83
4. Shanghai: A Local Developmental State	100
5. Beijing and Guangzhou: Laissez-Faire Local States	136
6. Changchun and Wuhan: Firm-Dominated Localities	172

PART III. DEEPENING GLOBAL INTEGRATION

7. Global Integration and the Challenge of Upgrading	207
8. Growth, Change, and the Challenge of Governance	248

PART IV. CONCLUSION

9. Local Institutions in a Global Economy	273
Appendix on Research Methods	293
Bibliography	295
Index	313