

Meanings of Bandung

Postcolonial Orders and Decolonial Visions

Edited by Quynh N. Pham and Robbie Shilliam

ROWMAN &
LITTLEFIELD
INTERNATIONAL

London • New York

Contents

About the Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xiii
INTRODUCTION	1
1 Reviving Bandung Quynh N. Pham and Robbie Shilliam	3
PART I: SENSING BANDUNG	21
2 The Elements of Bandung Himadeep Muppidi	23
3 Entanglements and Fragments "By the Sea" Sam Okoth Opondo	37
4 De-islanding Narendran Kumarakulasingam	51
5 A Meaning of Bandung: An Afro-Asian Tune without Lyrics Khadija El Alaoui	61
6 From Che to Guantanamo: Decolonizing the Corporeality of the Displaced Rachmi Diyah Larasati	75
7 Before Bandung: Pet Names in Telangana Rahul Rao	85

8	False Memories, Real Political Imaginaries: Jovanka Broz in Bandung Aida A. Hozic	95
9	Casting Off the "Heavenly Rule Book": Bandung's Poetic Revolutionary Solidarities Anna M. Agathangelou	101
PART II: LINEAGES OF BANDUNG		113
10	Remembering Bandung: When the Streams Crested, Tidal Waves Formed, and an Estuary Appeared Siba N. Grovogui	115
11	The Racial Dynamic in International Relations: Some Thoughts on the Pan-African Antecedents of Bandung Randolph B. Persaud	133
12	Spectres of the Third World: Bandung as a Lieu de Memoire Giorgio Shani	143
13	The Political Significance of Bandung for Development: Challenges, Contradictions and Struggles for Justice Heloise Weber	153
14	Speaking Up, from Capacity to Right: African Self-determination Debates in Post-Bandung Perspective Amy Niang	165
15	Papua and Bandung: A Contest between Decolonial and Postcolonial Questions Budi Hernawan	175
16	Bandung as a Plurality of Meanings Rosalba Icaza and Tamara Soukotta	185
CONCLUSIONS		199
17	The Bandung Within Mustapha Kamal Pasha	201
18	Afterword: Bandung as a Research Agenda Craig N. Murphy	211
	Bibliography	219
	Index	235