

Beyond Market-Driven Development

Drawing on the experience of Asia
and Latin America

Edited by Costas Lapavitsas and Makoto Noguchi

Routledge

Taylor & Francis Group

LONDON AND NEW YORK

C

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Preface	x
COSTAS LAPAVITSAS
Introduction: Globalism and developmentalism	1
MAKOTO NOGUCHI
PART I
Theoretical framework	15
1 Beyond the developmental state: Towards a political economy of development	17
BEN FINE
2 Can Asia find its own way of development? Corporate governance, system conflict and financial crisis	34
MAKOTO NOGUCHI
PART II
Results of globalization	49
3 Argentina: A decade of the convertibility regime	51
ROBERTO FRENKEL
4 State and development in Korea after the Asian crisis	63
DAE-HWAN KIM
5 Intellectual property rights and national innovation systems: Lessons from Mexico and Korea	88
JAIME ABOITES AND MARIO CIMOLI

PART III

Converging and diverging paths of economic development 115

6 What remains of the East Asian model? 117

K. SUNDARAM JOMO

7 Evolutionary privatisation in China 136

TOMO MARUKAWA

8 Is East Asia becoming 'Latin Asia'? Lessons from the 'Brazilian miracle' 150

MAKOTO SANO

PART IV

Finance and regionalism 165

9 Neo-liberal financial integration and financial crisis in emerging economies 167

ILENE GRABEL

10 Bank-based versus market-based financial systems: Insights from the history of economic thought 181

COSTAS LAPAVITSAS

11 East Asia and the development of regionalism 200

HITOSHI HIRAKAWA

Index 214