

African Economies in Transition

Volume 1: The Changing Role of the State

Edited by

Jo Ann Paulson

in association with

CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF AFRICAN ECONOMIES
UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Contents

Notes on Contributors. . . . .	vii
Preface. . . . .	ix
Introduction
Jo Ann Paulson. . . . .	1

Part I: The State in Macroeconomic Reforms

1. The Changing Role of the State in Formerly-Socialist Economies of Africa Jo Ann Paulson and Michael Gavin. . . . .	11
2. Government in Africa's Emerging Market Economies Edgardo Barandiaran. . . . .	66
3. The Macroeconomics of the Transition from African Socialism - David L. Bevan and Paul Collier. . . . .	93
4. Exchange Rate Management in Liberalising African Economies Paul Collier and Jan Willem Gunning. . . . .	169
5. The Impact of Liberalisation on Private Investment Paul Collier and Jan Willem Gunning. . . . .	193

Part II: Public Enterprises and Privatisation

6. Privatisation in Sub-Saharan Africa: Results, Prospects and New Approaches Elliot Berg. . . . .	229
7. Privatisation in Sub-Saharan Africa: Some Issues in Regulation and the Macroeconomics of Transition Christopher S. Adam. . . . .	290
Index. . . . .	325