

Challenges of European External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers

Edited by

MICHÈLE KNODT

Technische Universität Darmstadt

NADINE PIEFER

Technische Universität Darmstadt

&

FRANZISKA MÜLLER

Universität Kassel

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xv
Notes on Contributors	xxiii
Acknowledgements	xxix
Preface	xxxi

PART I INTRODUCTION: EU-EMERGING POWERS ENERGY GOVERNANCE

1	Introduction Michèle Knodt, Nadine Piefer and Franziska Müller	3
2	Conceptualizing Emerging Powers and EU Energy Governance: Towards a Research Agenda Franziska Müller, Michèle Knodt and Nadine Piefer	17
3	EU and Emerging Powers in Energy Governance: Exploring the Empirical Puzzle Nadine Piefer, Michèle Knodt and Franziska Müller	33

PART II EUROPEAN ENERGY GOVERNANCE

4	Explaining European Union External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers Michèle Knodt, Franziska Müller and Nadine Piefer	57
5	Bilateral EU Member States' Energy Cooperation with Emerging Powers	75
5.1	Denmark's Energy Cooperation with Emerging Powers Bruno Oliveira Martins, Yonatan Schwartzman and Knud-Erik Jørgensen	77
5.2	Germany's Energy Cooperation with Emerging Powers: Internationalizing the Energiewende ? Kirsten Westphal	87

5.3	Britain's Energy Cooperation with Emerging Powers Dan Kim	101
5.4	Spain's Energy Cooperation with Emerging Powers: The BICS' Potential in Spain's Energy Policy Susanne Gratius	113
PART III EU EXTERNAL ENERGY RELATIONS WITH CHINA, INDIA, BRAZIL, SOUTH AFRICA
6	China-EU Energy Governance: What Lessons to be Drawn? Zha Daojiong and Lai Suet Yi	129
7	India-EU Energy Relations: Towards Closer Cooperation? Madhura Joshi and Swati Ganeshan	149
8	Brazil-EU Energy Governance: Fuelling the Dialogue Through Alternative Energy Sources Aline Ribas and Roberto Schaeffer	173
9	South Africa-EU Energy Governance: Tales of Path Dependency, Regional Power, and Decarbonization Agathe Maupin	195
PART IV COMMUNICATIVE CHALLENGES OF EU-EMERGING POWERS ENERGY RELATIONS
10	More Than Only Words: Linking International High-Level Energy Dialogues with Policy Implementation Ulrich Müller and Nadine Piefer	217
11	Energy Poverty and Policy Coherence in India: Norms as Means in a Strategic Two-Level Discourse Mark Daniel Jaeger and Katharina Michaelowa	235
PART V NON-STATE ACTORS WITHIN EU-EMERGING POWERS ENERGY RELATIONS
12	The Governance of International Technology Transfer: Lessons from the Indian Wind Industry Daisuke Hayashi	251

13	Private Actors in Transnational Energy Governance Jens Steffek and Viviane Romeiro	269
PART VI MULTILATERAL AND REGIONAL EMBEDEDDNESS OF THE EU AND EMERGING POWERS IN ENERGY GOVERNANCE
14	International Energy Governance Revisited: Fragmented Landscapes, Diverging Dilemmas, and Emerging (Dis)Orders Kirsten Westphal	289
15	IRENA's Renewable Energy Governance: Institutional Change, Cooperation Opportunities, and Governance Innovations Franziska Müller	307
PART VII CONCLUDING REMARKS AND POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS
16	Understanding EU-Emerging Powers Energy Governance: From Competition towards Cooperation? Michèle Knodt, Franziska Müller and Nadine Piefer	327
17	Policy Recommendations for Enhanced EU-Emerging Powers Energy Cooperation Nadine Piefer, Michèle Knodt and Franziska Müller	345
	Annex 1: Network Actors	355
	Index	361