

THE BRAZILIAN ECONOMY

Growth and Development

5th Edition

Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

Illustrations	xiii
---------------	------

Preface to the Fifth Edition	xxi
------------------------------	-----

Parti: Historical Perspective	1
--------------------------------------	----------

1.	Introduction and Overview	"	3
	Physical and Demographic Setting		5
	Natural Resources		6
	The Population		7
	Notes		8
2.	iective	*	11
	The Colonial Economy		11
	Early Socioeconomic Organization		11
	The Sugar Cycle		12
	The Gold Cycle and the Rise of Mercantilist
	Control		14
	The Colony's Last Years		16
	The Century after Independence		16
	The Coffee Cycle		17
	Other Exports		J8
	Public Policies in the Nineteenth Century		19
	Notes		21
3.	Early Industrial Growth		25

	The Pre-World War I Period	25	;
	World War I	31	i
	The 1920s	32
	The Great Depression	35
	Industrial Growth during the Depression	36
	World War II	38	!
	Evaluation of Brazil's Early Industrial Growth	38
	Early Attempts at Planning in Brazil	41
	Notes	43
4.	The Post-World War II Industrialization Drive: 1946-61	47
	Brazil's Foreign Trade and Its Role in the Economy	47	;
	The World Market for Brazil's Traditional Exports in the 1950s	49
	Immediate Postwar Years	51
	Exchange Controls: 1946-53	53
	The Multiple Exchange Rate System: 1953-57	54
	Changes in Exchange Controls: 1957-61	56	'
	Exchange Reform: 1961-63	58
	The Law of Similars	58
	Special Plans and Programs	59	.
	Special Incentive Programs	62
	Effects of Industrialization Policies	63
	Imbalances and Bottlenecks	66
	Notes	69
5.	Stagnation and Boom: Brazil in the 1960s and 1970s	71
	Two Views of the Stagnation of the 1960s	72	'
	Economic Policies Since 1964	73
	Achievements of the Post-1964 Governments	75
	The Government Sector	77
	Issues Surrounding the Post-1964 Growth Experience	78
	Departure from Post-1964 Orthodoxy	83
	Notes	85	!
6.	From Adjustment to External Shocks to the Debt Crisis: 1973-85	87
	The First Oil Shock: Impact and Reaction	87	;
	Political Changes	88
	The Geisel Policies	88	!
	Growing International Indebtedness	90	i

	Toward the Debt Crisis	93
	Economic Performance in 1980	98
	Adjustment through Recession	99
	The Macro Impact of the Adjustment Period	103
	Notes	113
7.	The Resurgence of Inflation in Brazil: 1974-86	117
	The Nature of Brazil's Inflation: Two Visions	118
	General Background to Brazil's Inflation	122
	The Inflationary Impact of External Shocks	123
	The Propagating Mechanism of Inflation	124
	Monetary Aspects of the Inflationary Process	130
	Brazil's Authoritarian Budgetary Process	135
	Indexation	136
	Controlling Inflation through Index Tampering	138
	Price Controls	138
	Conclusion	140
	Notes	140
8.	The Decline and Fall of Brazil's Cruzado	145
	Background	146
	Events Leading to the Cruzado Plan	148
	The Cruzado Plan-	148
	Emerging Difficulties and Contradictions	150
	The Breakdown of the Cruzado Plan	165
	External Debt	167
	Evaluation	168
	Conclusion	169
	Notes	171
9.	Brazil's Drifting Economy: Stagnation and Inflation during 1987-93	173
	General Setting	173
	Samey after the Cruzado Collapse	175
	The Fiscal Impact of the 1988 Constitution	178
	The Collor Period—Collor I	178
	The Collor Period—Collor n	182
	The Itamar Franco Period: An Interregnum	187
	A Statistical Review of the Years 1987-93	188
	Brazil's Stagflation, 1987-93: An Interpretation	192
	Notes	195

10.	The Illusion of Stability: The Brazilian Economy Under Cardoso	199
	The Piano Real
	The Initial Impact of the Real
	The Exchange Rate Becomes the Key Policy Instrument	204
	The Unresolved Fiscal Dilemma	205
	Capital Flows	212
	The Performance of the Real Economy	212
	The Banking Crisis	214
	The Crisis 1998-99	215
	Conclusion	217
	Notes	218
	Part II: Contemporary Issues	221
11.	The External Sector: Trade and Foreign Investments	223
	International Economic Policies in the ISI Period	223
	The "Outward-Looking" Policies of the 1964-74 Period	225
	From Debt-Led Growth to the Debt Crisis	226
	The Opening of the Economy in the 1990s	226
	Statistical Summary of Brazil's International Position	226
	Brazil's Ties with the Outside World	228
	Complementarity versus Competitiveness in Brazil's Relations with the Industrialized World	234
	Foreign Investments in Brazil: Their Benefits and Costs	* 235
	Historical Perspective	235
	The 1950-86 Period	237
	The Benefits and Costs of Multinationals: Some General Considerations	240
	A Brief Survey of the Empirical Evidence	248
	Government Policies and the Behavior of Multinationals in Brazil	253
	The Era of Neoliberalism: The 1990s	254
	A Statistical Picture of FDI in Brazil	256
	The Impact of Foreign Investments in the 1990s	258
	Conclusion	259
	Notes	260

12.	Brazil's Extended Public Sector: Its Changing Role and Privatization	267
	Stages in the Growth of State Involvement in the Economy	268
	The 1970s and the 1980s	274
	Degree of State Control over the Economy	276
	Government Control over Savings and Their Distribution	279
	The Decay of Public Enterprises	283
	Privatization as a Solution to the State's Bankruptcy	284
	The Privatization Process in the Collor Administration	286
	Privatization in the 1990s	287
	The Wealth Distribution Effect of Privatization	289
	The Income Distribution Effect of Privatization	292
	Conclusion	293
	Notes	294
13.	The Banking System: Privatization and Restructuring	301
	A Brief Historical Perspective	302
	Bank Behavior During High Inflation Periods	304
	Stability and Institutional Change	306
	Banking Sector Restructuring	310
	Implications	316
	Notes	321
14.	Regional Imbalances	323
	Degree of Regional Inequality	323
	The Dynamics of Regional Inequalities	331
	Internal Population Migration	333
	Interaction between the Northeast and the Center-South	334
	Resource Transfers through the Fiscal Mechanism	339
	Regional Policies	340
	Regional Trends in the 1980s: The Northeast versus Brazil	343
	The Northeast in an Increasingly Open Economy	346
	Structural Weaknesses of the Northeastern Economy	350
	The Market, the State, and Regional Equity	351
	Conclusion	353
	Notes	354

15.	The Performance of Agriculture	357
	Growth of Agricultural Output Since World War II	358
	Changes in Production Methods	361
	Regional Patterns	365
	Sources of Agricultural Growth	366
	Distribution of Land	369
	Rural Poverty	372
	Agricultural Policies	373
	Brazil's Agriculture in the 1990s	376
	• Policy Reforms in the Late 1980s and 1990s	378
	Agricultural Employment	380
	Notes	380
16.	Environmental Aspects of Brazil's Development	385
	Economic Expansion and the Environment in
	Historical Perspective	386
	Industrialization, Urban Growth, and the
	Environment	387
	Industrial Pollution	390
	Urban Pollution	395
	Urban Poverty and the Environment	396
	Summary View of the Environmental Degradation
	from Urban Poverty	397
	Agricultural Growth and the Environment	400
	The Amazon Strategy and the Environment	405
	Extent of Amazon Deforestation	409
	Brazil's Environmental Policies	412
	Policies to Curtail Urban-Industrial Pollution	413
	Conclusion/;	417
	Notes	418
17.	Health in Brazil's Development Process	425
	The Health Record	426
	Health and Health Care in Brazil Prior to the
	Mid-1980s	429
	The 1988 Constitution and Its Impact on Brazil's
	Health Delivery System	432
	Private versus Public Contributions to Brazil's
	Health Care	434
	The Distribution of Health Care	434
	Health Status in Brazil	435
	Demand for Health Services	436
	Expenditures on Health	436

	Financing of HealthCare	437
	Conclusion	438
	Notes -	438
18.	Structural Changes in Brazil's Industrial Economy, 1960-95	441
	General Structural Changes	442
	Brazil's Post-World War II Industrial History	443
	Structural Changes, 1959-98	446
	General Conclusions	454
	Notes	458
	Statistical Appendix	461
	Bibliography ;	473
	Index	493