

THE ACADEMIC SCRIBBLERS

REVISED EDITION

WILLIAM, BREIT

University of Virginia

ROGER L, RANSOM

. University of California, Riverside

THE DRYDEN PRESS

*Chicago New York Philadelphia
San Francisco Montreal Toronto '
London Sydney Tokyo Mexico City
Rio de danei*o^J]ladrid*

CONTENTS

Preface to the First Edition

Preface to the Second Edition

Chapter 1 Introduction

PART ONE

THE PILLARS OF NEOCLASSICAL ECONOMICS

Chapter 2 The Intellectual Gantry of Neoclassical Economic Policy 7

Chapter 3 Alfred Marshall—
Exemplar of Neoclassical Economic Thought. 19

PART TWO

THE ECLIPSE OF NEOCLASSICAL ECONOMICS

Chapter 4 Thorstein Veblen—The Abrogation of Consumer Sovereignty 31

Chapter 5 Arthur Cecil Pigou—Externalities in Production 43

Chapter 6 Edward Hastings Chamberlin—The Wastes of Competition 53

Chapter 7 John Maynard Keynes—Unemployment in Equilibrium 65

PART THREE

THE NEW ECONOMICS

Chapter 8 Alvin H. Hansen—The American Keynes 81

Chapter 9	Paul A. Samuelson—From Economic Wunderkind to Policymaker	107
Chapter 10	Abba P. Lerner—The Artist as Economist	137
Chapter 11	John Kenneth Galbraith—Economist as Social Critic	161
PART FOUR
THE NEW NEOCLASSICISM
Chapter 12	Frank H. Knight—Philosopher of the Counterrevolution in Economics	193
Chapter 13	Henry C. Simons—Radical Proponent of Laissez-faire	207
Chapter 14	Milton Friedman—Classical Liberal as Economic Scientist	223
Chapter 15	Conclusion	263
	Index	267