

Critical Issues in International Financial Reform

Albert Berry

Gustavo Indart

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

Contents

Illustrations	vii
List of Contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xiv
1	Critical Issues in Financial Reform, with Special Reference to Latin America and the Canadian Experience Albert Berry	1
2	International Asymmetries and the Design of the International Financial System Jose Antonio Ocampo	45
3	Capital Flows to Latin America in the 1990s: An Overview Marline Guerguil	75
4	Competitiveness, Sustainability and Financial Market Failures Jose Maria Fanelli	103
5	Financial Liberalization in Canada: Historical, Institutional and Economic Perspectives Donald J.S. Brean	125
6	Linkages Between National Capital Markets: Does Globalization Expose Policy Gaps? John F. Helliwell	153
7	Firm Size and the Impacts of Financial Liberalization and Integration Albert Berry and Clemente Ruiz	175

8	Systemic Reform at a Standstill: A Flock of "Gs" in Search of Global Financial Stability Roy Culpeper	203
9	Enforcing the Rules in a Global Economy: The Emergence of Structural Conditionality in the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund Louis Pauly	237
10	When Do Voters Matter more than Cronies in Developing Countries? The Politics of Bank Crisis Resolution Sylvia Maxfield	263
11 v	Financial Crisis, Income Distribution and the Labor Market: The Experience of Mexico and Asia Diana Alarcon, Susan Horton, Dipak Mazumdar and Eduardo Zepeda	295
12	The Chilean Experience with Capital Flows and Exchange-Rate Policy Ricardo Ffrench-Davis	325
13	Capital Flows and Foreign Exchange Regimes in the Colombian Economy Leonardo Villar and Hernan Rineon	353
	Index	383