

Introduction by B J Cunningham • xi
Preface « xv

Corporate Religion - the essence « 1
Corporate Religion - a coherent description of the company • 3
Harmony and penetration power » 3
Find the right formula » 5
Becoming a Brand Religion • 8
No Brand Religion without Corporate Religion « 10
*Case study: Hurley-lujah (Harley-Davidson) * 14*
Case study: The name is Bran(d)son... (Virgin) » 21

international chaos » 27
• I •

Market adjustment makes a virtue out of weakness « 29
The need for spiritual management « 30
Companies must have a corporate religion "30
Why is "spiritual" management necessary? ◇ 31
Trend 1: The movement from national to international companies • 32
Trend 2: The movement from product to concept « 39
Trend 3: Product life cycles are shortening • 40
Trend 4: Quicker.reaction to changes • 41 Trend 5: The movement from one brand to multiple brands • 42
The company behind the brand ° 43

&\	Brand Religion « 47
€J	A strong market position is the key to the future ° 48
	Brand Values ° 48
	High involvement is the key to Brand Value » 51
	Brand positions ° 55
	Case study: The businessman's airline (SAS) " 67
	Brand building ° 74
	Case study: Show business (Worldwide Brands Inc.) • 76
	The brand band • 81
	Case study: Star Wars (Adidas/Nike)» 84
	Case study: 'Waiter, a T-shirt, please!' (Hard Rock Cafe) • 92
/A jt\	Corporate Religion ° 97
!j	A strong brand requires a strong organisation ° 97
	You don't get belief out of a slot machine • 100
	Spiritual management • 101
	Case study: Religious leadership (Microsoft) « 104
	Corporate Religion - value based growth management ° 108
	Product • 109
	Mission ° 109
	Vision " 110
	Corporate Religion • 111
	'Development of a Corporate Religion • 114
	System ° 131
	Commitment ° 132
	Action • 133
	Case study: Paradise regained - perhaps (IBM) • 135
	Corporate Religion can focus all types of companies ° 141
	Case study: Music to the ears (Oticon) • 144

Corporate Religion in consumer-oriented
companies ° 148

Case study: The Body Shop creed » 149

The threat from large subsidiaries ° 155

*Case study: Consistent values consummate success
(The Walt Disney Company) ° 156*

Commitment and action ◇ 161

Commitment • 163

Education as a commitment creator in business-to-business companies • 165

Case study: Coffee religion (Starbucks) » 167

Everyone can be educated ° 171

Case study: Educating Ole (McDonald's) "173

The interaction between commitment and

Corporate Religion ° 177

Action ° 178

Case study: The Japanese boomerang (Toyota) » 182

Control of campaign and sales activities • 187

Action requires good planning ° 187

Consequences for the organisation ◇ 191

Reuniting the power centre and the consumer ◇ 193

Making the non-homogeneous international company homogeneous ° 195

Corporate Religion requires a complete new
'organisation ◇ 198

Different stages of development ° 209

The religious focus ° 211

New organisational thinking « 212

Consequences for top management » 215
Spiritual focus » 216
Spiritual management with the founder as leader ° 218
Spiritual management in companies with second generation management • 220
Corporate Religion requires a very strong management • 221
Corporate Religion requires a visible management « 224
Corporate Religion implies a new type of leader « 225
The leader of the future must stand at the front • 228
System for supervising the global market • 229

Implementing a Corporate Religion * 231

Internal analysis of the company's product programme • 232
Analysis of brand values in selected markets • 234
Assessing the brand's business opportunities » 235
Developing the Corporate Concept • 236
A total description of the company • 238
Defining the Corporate Religion and the system set-up to ensure commitment and action » 239
Trials in selected test markets « 242
Adjusting the concept and the religion • 242
Dismantling the old international organisation • 242
Changing the organisation simultaneously «• 244
The religion must be impressed on everybody right from the start • 245
The religion is established within a year • 245
The corporate religion driven company is always evolving ° 247
... And the future? ° 247

/'	Epilogue	« 251
	Introduction to the epilogue	« 253
	Major marketing tasks	• 254
	Fixed budgets	° 256
	The international dimension	◇ 257
	Strong market positions	«.258
	Integrating specialist competencies	◇ 261
	The total communication agency	• 262
	Creative chaos	• 265
	A special culture	« 268
	The representative group	• 269
	Finding the future in the past	° 273
	The total description	• 274
	Nurture your Corporate Religion	• 275
	Take care of the family	◇ 276