

Helping People Help Themselves

From the World Bank to an Alternative
Philosophy of Development Assistance

David Ellerman

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN PRESS

Ann Arbor

Contents

Foreword by Albert O. Hirschman	xiii
Preface	xv
1 Introduction & Overview	1
2 Internal & External Motivation: Beyond Homo economicus	25
3 The Indirect Approach	52
4 Indirect Approaches: Intellectual History	68
5 Autonomy-Respecting Development Assistance	100
6 Knowledge-Based Development Assistance	121
7 Can Development Agencies Learn & Help Clients Learn?	149
8 Case Study: Assistance to the Transition Countries	186
9 Hirschmanian Themes of Social Learning & Change	207
10 Conclusions	240
Appendix. Eight Thinkers on the Five Themes	253
Notes	265
Bibliography	301
Index	327