

Higher Education in Latin America

The International Dimension

Editors

Hans de Wit, Isabel Christina Jaramillo,
Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila, and Jane Knight

THE WORLD BANK
Washington, D.C.

Contents

Foreword	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii
Abbreviations	xix
About the Authors	xxiii
1. An Internationalization Model: Responding to New Realities and Challenges	1
Jane Knight
2. Regional and International Challenges to Higher Education in Latin America	39
Lauritz B. Holm-Nielsen, Kristian Thorn, José Joaquín Brunner, and Jorge Balán
3. Internationalization of Higher Education in Argentina	71
Julio César Theiler
4. Internationalization of Higher Education in Brazil	111
Sonia Pereira Laus and Marília Costa Morosini
5. Internationalization of Higher Education in Chile	149
Carlos Ramírez Sanchez
6. Internationalization of Higher Education in Colombia	175
Isabel Cristina Jaramillo

7. Internationalization of Higher Education in Cuba	211
Raúl Hernández Pérez
8. Internationalization of Higher Education in Mexico	239
Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila
9. Internationalization of Higher Education in Peru	281
Luis Jaime Castillo Butters, Leena Bernuy Quiroga, and Pamela Lastres Dammert
10. Key Actors and Programs: Increasing Connectivity in the Region	301
Isabel Cristina Jaramillo and Jane Knight
11. The Latin American Way: Trends, Issues, and Directions	341
Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila, Isabel Cristina Jaramillo, Jane Knight, and Hans de Wit

Tables

1.1 Implications of Globalization for Internationalization of Higher Education	7
1.2 Rationales Driving Internationalization	16
1.3 Institutional-Level Programs and Organizational Strategies for Internationalization	23
1.4 Policies and Programs for Internationalization at the National, Sectoral, and Institutional Levels	25
1.5 Components of Internationalization at Home and Abroad	28
1.6 Approaches to Internationalization at the Institutional Level	30
1.7 Approaches to Internationalization at the National and Sectoral Level	32
2.1 Private Higher Education in Latin America, 1985–2002	42
2.2 Rates of Return to Secondary School and University Education in Selected Latin American Countries, 2001	59
3.1 Universities and University Institutes in Argentina, 2000	73
3.2 University Enrollment in Argentina, by Type of Institution, 1990 and 2000	75
3.3 CONEAU–Accredited Graduate Courses in Argentina, 1999 and 2003	76
3.4 Overseas Scholarships Granted to Argentines, 1997–2002	102
3.5 Countries and Regions of Institutions with Which Argentine Public Universities Have Signed Agreements	104
4.1 Higher Education Institutions in Brazil, by Administrative Type and Academic Organization, 2002	114