

International Exhibitions and Urbanism

The Zaragoza Expo 2008 Project

JAVIER MONCLUS

Politechnical University of Catalonia, Spain

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Postscript for English Edition	ix
Foreword	xi
Prologue	xv
Introduction	1
PART 1 THREE HISTORICAL CYCLES OF INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITIONS
1 'Historical'Expositions: From Ephemeral to Permanent	15
2 Expos in the Modern Age: A Change in Urban Development Perspective	45
3 Expositions in the Age of Globalisation and Post-Modernity: Cultural Economy and Strategic Urban Development	81
PART 2 THE EXPO ZARAGOZA 2008 PROJECT
4 The Expo Zaragoza 2008 Project as a Part of Urban Development	115
5 The Expo as an Urban Project and Meta-Project: From Master Plan to Building Projects	131
6 The Expo Project as a Catalyst for Other Urban Development Projects (2004-2008): The Accompanying Plan	151
Epilogue and Conclusions: Problems, Opportunities and Conditions for the Zaragoza Expo 2008 Project	171
Appendix	177
Bibliography	195
Index	203