

Reshaping the World Trading System

A History of the
Uruguay Round

Second and Revised Edition

John Croome

KLUWER LAW
INTERNATIONAL

The Hague • London • Boston

WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION

ORGANISATION MONDIALE DU COMMERCE

ORGANIZACION MUNDIAL DEL COMERCIO

ef contents

Foreword.....	ix
Foreword to the second edition.....	xi
Prologue.....	xiii
Chapter I — Towards a new round: 1979—86.....	1
Aftermath of the Tokyo Round.....	2
Stocktaking	3
A new agenda for GAIT.....	7
The decision to negotiate.....	14
Chapter II — Launching the Uruguay Round.....	21
Punta del Este.....	23
The Punta del Este Declaration.....	25
The negotiations begin.....	28
Chapter III - The road to Montreal: 1986-88.....	29
Access to markets: tackling traditional barriers to trade.....	29
Tariffs.....	34
Non-tariff measures.....	39
Natural resource-based products.....	42
Tropical products.....	45
Rule-making.....	51
Safeguards.....	53
Subsidies and countervailing measures.....	58
The Tokyo Round codes.....	63
Anti-dumping.....	66
Standards.....	70
Import licensing.....	73
Customs valuation.....	75
Government procurement.....	76
Subsidies.....	77
GATT Articles.....	77
Schedules of concessions.....	79
Balance-of-payments provisions.....	79
State trading.....	81

Security exceptions.....	81
Regional agreements.....	82
Waivers.....	84
De facto status under the GATT.....	84
Renegotiation of tariff concessions.....	85
Non-application of the GATT.....	86
The "grandfather clause".....	86
Past errors revisited: a new look at textiles and agriculture.....	87
Textiles and clothing.....	88
Agriculture.....	92
The new subjects.....	99
Services.....	102
TRIPS.....	109
TRIMS.....	116
Institutions.....	120
Dispute settlement.....	123
Functioning of the GATT system.....	129
Steering the Round.....	136
Chapter IV - The mid-term review.....	141
Montreal.....	142
Completing the mid-term review.....	147
Chapter V - Second half 1989-90.....	153
Market access.....	156
Tariffs.....	156
Non-tariff measures.....	161
Natural resource-based products.....	166
Tropical products.....	167
Rule-making.....	168
Safeguards.....	168
Subsidies.....	171
The Tokyo Round codes.....	177
Anti-dumping.....	177
Standards.....	181
Import licensing.....	182
Customs valuation.....	183
Government procurement.....	184
GATT Articles.....	185
Schedules.....	185
State trading.....	186
Renegotiation of tariff concessions.....	187
Regional agreements.....	187
Waivers.....	189
Non-application of the GATT.....	189

CONTENTS

The "grandfather clause".....•	190
Balance-of-payments articles.....	191
Textiles and clothing.....	192
Agriculture.....	199
First detailed proposals.....	200
Sanitary and phytosanitary measures.....	201
Impasse in the main agricultural negotiations.....	204
The new subjects.....'	207
Services.....	207
TRIPS.....'	215
TRIMS.....	219
Institutions.....-	223
Dispute settlement.....	224
Functioning of the GATT system.....	229
Chapter VI - Brussels and after.....	237
Brussels.....	238
Agriculture.....	240
Breakdown.....	241
Market access.....	241
Rules.....:	242
Textiles and clothing.....	243
Services.....	243
TRIPS.....'	244
TRIMS.....	244
Institutions.....	245
Getting back on track.....	245
Chapter VII - Extra time: 1991	249
Changes in Geneva.....	249
New authority for the negotiators.....	250
The Round in a new perspective.....	251
Putting the package together: the Draft Final Act.....•	253
Agriculture.....	255
Market access.....:	257
Rule-making.....	259
Safeguards.....	260
Subsidies.....	261
Anti-dumping.....	263
Balance-of-payments rules.....	266
The "grandfather clause".....	266
TRIMS.....	267
Textiles and clothing.....	268
Services.....	271
TRIPS.....	275

Institutions.....	277
Chapter VIII - Frustrated hopes: 1992-93.....'	285
Track One: market access.....	288
Track Two: services.....	289
Track Three: the Legal Drafting Group.....	290
Track Four: substantive changes in the Draft Final Act.....	292
The Round at the mercy of external events.....	293
A change of cast.....	300
Chapter IX - Final push.....	303
The last re-launch?.....	303
Negotiations September — November 1993.....	306
Market access.....	307
Services.....	310
Institutions.....'	313
Track Four: should the new trade rules be changed?.....	315
End-game.....	317
"Can it be true?".....	331
Epilogue - The WTO three years on.....	333
Are governments living up to their Uruguay Round commitments?.....	333
Is the WTO all that different from the GATT?.....	337
Towards a new Round?.....	340
Annex — Ministerial Declaration on the Uruguay Round.....	343
Part I - Negotiations on Trade in Goods.....	343
A. Objectives.....	344
B. General Principles Governing Negotiations.....	344
C. Standstill and Rollback.....	345
D. Subjects for Negotiation.....	346
E. Functioning of the GATT System.....	349
F. Participation.....	350
G. Organization of the Negotiations.....	350
Part II - Negotiations on Trade in Services.....	351
Implementation of Results Under Parts I and II.....	351
Index.....	353