

MISPLACED OBJECTS

Migrating Collections and Recollections in Europe and the Americas

SILVIA SPITTA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE IX

INTRODUCTION: Misplaced Objects and Subject Matters 3

PART I: THE OBJECT AS SPECIMEN 25

1. Misplaced Objects from the Americas and the Emergence of the European Wunderkammern 27

2. Transatlantic Subject Matters and Big Bones:
The Real Gabinete de Historia Natural de Madrid 49

3. Writing the Natural History of Our Destruction: From P. T. Barnum's
National Histrionics to Contemporary, Post-Apocalyptic Wunderkammern 67

PART II: MIGRATING ICONS AND SACRED
GEOGRAPHIES IN THE AMERICAS 95

4. GuadalupeNation: Disappearing Objects, National Narratives 96

5. Guadalupe's Wheels: Runaway Image, Undocumented
Border Crosser, Miracle Worker 117

6. The New Mexico/New Mestizo Effect:
Enchanted and Otherwise Enacted Spaces 139

PART III: FOUND OBJECTS AND RE-COLLECTING SUBJECTS 161

7. Re-Collecting the Past: Latinidad's Found Objects,
Photographs, and Home Altars 163

8. Sandra Ramos and the Cuban Diaspora:
La vida no cabe en una maleta 181

EPILOGUE 199

NOTES 209

WORKS CITED 245

INDEX 259