

The rebirth of private policing

Les Johnston

London and New York

Contents

Preface	vi
Acknowledgements	viii
Part I Historical and political background
1 Private policing: before and after the 'new police'	3
2 Ideologies of public and private provision	24
Part II Private policing: current developments and their policy implications
3 Privatization and public policing	47
4 The private security sector I: structure and control	71
5 The private security sector II: activities	94
6 Hybrid policing	114
7 Citizenship and self-policing I: responsible citizenship	137
8 Citizenship and self-policing II: autonomous citizenship	159
Part III Theoretical conclusions
9 New directions in the sociology of policing	183
10 Privatization and social control	204
Bibliography	225
Name index	243
Subject index	248