

WHO ARE WE?

AMERICA'S GREAT DEBATE

SAMUEL P. HUNTINGTON

CONTENTS

Foreword xv

PART I THE ISSUES OF IDENTITY

Chapter 1. The Crisis of National Identity 3

Salience: Are the Flags Still There? 3

Substance: Who Are We? 8

The Global Identity Crisis 12

Prospects for American Identity 17

Chapter 2. Identities: National and Other 21

The Concept of Identity 21

Others and Enemies 24

Sources of Identity 27

The False Dichotomy 28

PART II AMERICAN IDENTITY

Chapter 3. Components of American Identity 37

Change, Continuity, and Partial Truths 37

Settlers Before Immigrants 38

More Than the Creed 46

"No Attachment to Place" 49

Race and Ethnicity 53

Chapter 4. Anglo-Protestant Culture 59

The Cultural Core 59

"The Dissidence of Dissent" 62

The American Creed 66

Individualism and the Work Ethic 69

Moralism and the Reform Ethic 75

Chapter 5. Religion and Christianity 81

God, the Cross, and America 81

A Religious People 83

Protestant America and Catholicism 92

A Christian People 98

Civil Religion 103

Chapter 6. Emergence, Triumph, Erosion 107

The Fragility of Nations 107

Creating an American Identity 109

National vs. Other Identities 113

Nation and Patriotism Triumphant 119

Fading Nationalism 137

PART III CHALLENGES TO AMERICAN IDENTITY

Chapter 7. Deconstructing America:

The Rise of Subnational Identities 141

The Deconstructionist Movement 141

The Challenge to the Creed 146

The Challenge to English 158

The Challenge to the Core Culture 171

Chapter 8. Assimilation: Converts,

Ampersands, and the Erosion of Citizenship 178

Immigration With or Without Assimilation 178

Assimilation: Still a Success? 182

Sources of Assimilation 184

The Immigrants 185

The Immigration Process 192

American Society: Americanization Is Un-American 199

Ampersands and Dual Citizenship 204

Citizens and Noncitizens 214

Alternatives to Americanization 220

Chapter 9. Mexican Immigration and Hispanization 221

- The Mexican/Hispanic Challenge 221
- Why Mexican Immigration Differs 222
- How Mexican Assimilation Lags 230
- Individual Assimilation and Enclave Consolidation 244
- The Hispanization of Miami 247
- The Hispanization of the Southwest 251

Chapter 10. Merging America with the World 257

- The Changing Environment 257
- The Search for an Enemy 258
- Dead Souls: The Denationalization of Elites 264
- The Patriotic Public 273
- Diasporas, Foreign Governments, and American Politics 276

PART IV RENEWING AMERICAN IDENTITY

Chapter 11. Fault Lines Old and New 295

- The Shaping Trends 295
- The Ending of Ethnicity 296
- Race: Constant, Blurring, Fading 303
- White Nativism 309
- Bifurcation: Two Languages and Two Cultures? 316
- Unrepresentative Democracy: Elites vs. the Public 324

Chapter 12. Twenty-first Century America:
Vulnerability, Religion, and National Identity 336

- The Creed in an Age of Vulnerability 336
- Americans Turn to Religion 340
- The Global Resurgence of Religion 355
- Militant Islam vs. America 357
- America in the World: Cosmopolitan, Imperial, and/or National? 362