

Korea and the Knowledge-based Economy

Making the Transition

Table of Contents

Currency Equivalents.....	9
Abbreviations.....	9
Executive Summary.....	11
A. The knowledge revolution: the challenge to Korea's development strategy.....	11
B. The framework of the knowledge-based economy.....	13
C. Issues in the four key areas.....	14
D. Industry-related reforms.....	16
E. Implementation of the reforms.....	17
F. Executive summary matrix: main findings and remaining issues.....	18
Chapter 1. The Knowledge Revolution: A Challenge to Korea's Development Strategy.....	25
A. The current context.....	25
B. The knowledge and information revolution.....	25
C. Challenges to Korea's future development.....	28
D. Korea's new development strategy.....	31
E. The concept of a knowledge-based economy.....	31
F. Definition and framework.....	32
Notes.....	37
References.....	39
Chapter 2. Updating the Economic Incentive and Institutional Regime.....	41
A. Introduction.....	41
B. Redefining the role of government.....	41
C. Opening up the economy and promoting competition.....	42
D. Increasing the soundness and efficiency of financial markets.....	45
E. Enhancing labor flexibility and strengthening social safety nets.....	46
F. Addressing the risks of the "digital divide".....	47
G. Updating the institutional regime.....	50
H. Conclusion.....	52
Notes.....	53
References.....	56
Chapter 3. Developing Human Resources for the Knowledge-based Economy.....	57
A. Introduction.....	57
B. Educational achievements and recent education reforms in Korea.....	57
C. The paradigm shift in education.....	60
D. Challenges to the Korean education system and possible responses.....	61
E. Conclusions.....	71
Notes.....	73
References.....	76

Chapter 4. Ensuring a Dynamic Information Infrastructure .....	79
A. Background.....	79
B. Recent sector growth.....	79
C. Remaining challenges.....	82
D. Cyber Korea 21 : Targets and initiatives.....	83
E. Next-generation policy and regulatory role for government.....	84
F. Ensuring access and overcoming the digital divide.....	89
G. Using ICTs to improve the performance of government.....	90
H. Conclusions.....	91
Notes.....	93
References.....	94
Chapter 5. Improving the Korean Innovation System .....	95
A. Introduction.....	95
B. Profile of science, technology and innovation activities.....	95
C. Main features and weaknesses of the Korean innovation system.....	98
D. The new policy agenda.....	103
E. Conclusions.....	110
Notes.....	111
References.....	113
Chapter 6. Promoting Knowledge-based Activities .....	115
A. Introduction.....	115
B. Reforming the chaebol .....	116
C. Improving conditions for small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs).....	120
D. Strengthening the contribution of foreign firms.....	123
E. Promotion of high-value-added services.....	124
F. Promoting investment in intangible assets.....	126
G. Conclusion.....	128
Appendix Most Important Bottlenecks in Production and Technological Improvement .....	129
Notes.....	130
References.....	131
Chapter 7. Implementing Korea's Strategy for a Knowledge-based Economy .....	133
A. Introduction.....	133
B. Broadening and deepening the consultations.....	133
C. Working out the implementation details.....	136
Notes.....	140
References.....	142
Annexes
I. Preliminary Assessment of the Knowledge-based Economy in Korea.....	143
II. Closing the Digital Divide: Some Country Examples.....	147
III. Some Reflections on the Challenges of Policy Implementation.....	151

List of Boxes

1.1. The new economy.....	26
1.2. The national innovation system.....	35
3.1. New Zealand's experience with decentralization.....	64
5.1. The under-utilization of national R&D results-STEPI report.....	102
5.2. KIS for the transition to a knowledge-based economy.....	104
5.3. From a sectoral to a cluster approach: innovation and technology policy in the knowledge-based economy.....	109
6.1. Components of investment in intangible assets.....	127

7.1. Finland's broad consultations.....	134
7.2. implementation and financing: The Irish case.....	137
7.3. Korea's medium-term fiscal plan.....	138
7.4. Finland's rolling strategy.....	139

List of Tables

I.1. Total factor productivity growth estimates for Korea.....	29
2.1. Total outstanding venture capital investments in Korea.....	46
3.1. Public expenditure on education as a percentage of GDP, 1995.....	59
4.1. Korean investment in information infrastructure, 1991-99.....	82
5.1. Income and technological performance, 1998.....	96
5.2. Flows of R&D funds in Korea, 1997.....	97
6.1. Main characteristics of selected knowledge-intensive industries in Korea.....	117
6.2. Measures to improve the general policy environment for business in Korea.....	119
6.3. Basic characteristics of Korean manufacturing establishments, by size.....	121
6.4. Trend of start-ups and bankruptcies, 1993-99.....	121

I'

List of Figures

1.1. International trade by type of good, 1976 and 1996.....	27
12. East Asian countries' share of world manufactured exports.....	30
13. The changing composition of East Asian manufactured exports, 1985 and 1995.....	30
2.1. Foreign direct investment in Korea, by sector.....	43
2.2. Services as a percentage of GDP, 1995-98.....	44
3.1. Education indicators: Korea.....	58
3.2. Student teacher ratio (secondary level).....	58
4.1. Past and predicted growth in mobile phones.....	80
4.2. Total Internet subscribers, past and predicted.....	83
5.1. Basic research as a percentage of GDP by sector of performance, 1997.....	99
5.2. Higher education expenditure on R&D per researcher.....	100
6.1. Share of total business-sector value added by knowledge-based industries.....	116
6.2. Real value-added growth by the total business sector and by knowledge-based industries.....	116

Figures

Ia. Knowledge assessment scorecard: Korea.....	144
Ib. Knowledge assessment scorecard: United States.....	144
Ic. Knowledge assessment scorecard: Singapore.....	144
Id. Knowledge assessment scorecard: Japan.....	144