

THE UNITED NATIONS, PEACE AND SECURITY

From Collective Security to the Responsibility to Protect

I • RAMESH THAKUR

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

List of figures P<sup>a</sup>S<sup>e</sup> nX

List of tables x

' Foreword, Gareth Evans xi

Acknowledgements xvi

ii

Introduction 1

PART i An international organisation for keeping the peace

- 1 Pacific settlement, collective security and international peacekeeping 27
- 2 Peace operations and the UN-US relationship 48

PART ii Soft security perspectives

- 3 Human security 71
- 4 Human rights: civil society and the United Nations _93
- 5 International] criminal justice 113
- 6 International sanctions 134

PART in Hard security issues

- 7 The nuclear threat 159
- 8 International terrorism 181

9	Kosovo 1999	203
10	Iraq's challenge to world order	222
11	The responsibility to protect •	244
12	Developing countries and the eroding non-intervention norm	264
PART iv Institutional developments
13	Reforming the United Nations	291
14	The political role of the United Nations , Secretary-General	320
	Conclusion: at the crossroads of ideals and reality	343
	Index	370