

Starting Strong

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION AND CARE

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Table of Contents

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	7
1. Introduction	7
2. Contextual issues shaping ECEC policy.....	7
3. Main policy developments and issues	8
4. Policy lessons from the thematic review	11
CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION	13
1.1 Why are countries interested in a thematic review of early childhood education and care policy?.....	13
1.2 What do we mean by Early Childhood Education and Care ?	14
1.3 Which countries took part in the thematic review?.....	15
1.4 How was the thematic review conducted?	16
1.5 The structure of the report	18
1.6 Terminology and conventions used in the report	18
CHAPTER 2: CONTEXTUAL ISSUES SHAPING ECEC POLICY	21
Introduction	21
2.1 Demographic, economic and social trends	22
2.2 Recognising diverse views of children and the purposes of ECEC.....	38
CHAPTER 3: MAIN POLICY DEVELOPMENTS AND ISSUES	45
Introduction	45
3.1 Expanding provision toward universal access	48
3.2 Raising the quality of provision	62
3.3 Promoting coherence and co-ordination of policy and services	76
3.4 Exploring strategies to ensure adequate investment in the system	85
3.5 Improving staff training and work conditions.....	96
3.6 Developing appropriate pedagogical frameworks for young children	109
3.7 Engaging parents, families and communities	117
CHAPTER 4: POLICY LESSONS FROM THE THEMATIC REVIEW	125
Introduction: A broader contextual framework for ECEC policy	125
4.1 Key elements of successful ECEC policy.....	126
A systemic and integrated approach to policy development and implementation	127
A strong and equal partnership with the education system.....	128
A universal approach to access, with particular attention to children in need of special support.....	129
Substantial public investment in services and the infrastructure	130
A participatory approach to quality improvement and assurance	131
Appropriate training and working conditions for staff in all forms of provision.....	132

Systematic attention to monitoring and data collection.....	134
A stable framework and long-term agenda for research and evaluation	134
4.2 Future directions of work.....	135
REFERENCES	139
Appendix 1: An Overview of ECEC Systems in the Participating Countries	147
Appendix 2. Statistical Tables	185
Appendix 3. Questions to Guide the Preparation of the Background Report	191
Appendix 4. National Co-ordinators and Members of Review Teams	197
Appendix 5. Commissioned Papers	211
Appendix 6. Country Codes Used in Tables and Charts	213