

International Political Risk Management

Looking to the Future

Theodore H. Moran and Gerald T. West
Editors

The World Bank
Washington, D.C.

Contents

Preface .....	ix
List of Acronyms .....	xi
Introduction .....	1
Yukiko Omura, Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency
Part One     Learning from Recent Losses, Claims,                   and Arbitrations
Overview .....	5
Theodore H. Moran and Gerald T. West, Editors
Tales from the Dark Side: Lessons Learned from Troubled Investments .....	12
Kenneth W. Hansen, Chadbourne &amp; Parke LLP
Learning from OPIC's Experience with Claims and Arbitration .....	30
Robert C. O'Sullivan, Overseas Private Investment Corporation
Discussion of Learning from Recent Losses, Claims, and Arbitrations .....	75
Symposium Panelists and Participants
Part Two     The Emergence of New International                   Property Rights and the Role of Political                   Risk Insurance in Project Finance
Overview .....	81
Theodore H. Moran and Gerald T. West, Editors

The New International Property Rights: Can the Foreign Investor Rely on Them? .....	87
Louis T. Wells, Jr., Harvard Business School
The Future of Political Risk Insurance in International Project Finance: Clarifying the Role of Expropriation Coverage .....	103
Frederick E. Jenney, Morrison &amp; Foerster LLP
Discussion of the Emergence of New International Property Rights and the Role of Political Risk Insurance in Project Finance .....	116
Symposium Panelists and Participants
Part Three The Evolution of Private-Public Relationships in the Political Risk Insurance Industry
Overview .....	121
Theodore H. Moran and Gerald T. West, Editors
The Future of the International Political Risk Insurance Industry .....	128
Clive Tobin, XL Insurance
Perspectives on Private-Public Relationships in Political Risk Insurance .....	139
Toby Heppel, FirstCity Partnership Ltd.
Discussion of the Evolution of Private-Public Relationships in Political Risk Insurance .....	158
Symposium Panelists and Participants
Part Four New Products and New Perspectives in Political Risk Insurance
Overview .....	167
Theodore H. Moran and Gerald T. West, Editors
The Use of Political Risk Insurance to Support Emerging Market-Based Issuers .....	173
Christina Westholm-Schröder, Sovereign Risk Insurance Ltd.
Currency Transfer and Convertibility Coverage: An Old Reliable Product or Just an Old Product? .....	182
Daniel W. Riordan and Edward A. Coppola, Zurich Emerging Markets Solutions

Discussion of New Products and New Perspectives in Political Risk Insurance .....	193
Symposium Panelists and Participants

Appendixes

I	Biographies of Authors .....	199
II	Whither the Political Risk Insurance Industry? .....	206
	Gerald T. West and Kristofer Hamel, MIGA
III	Previous Volumes in the Series .....	231
IV	More About MIGA .....	237
	Index .....	241