

Underdevelopment

A Strategy for Reform

Paolo Sylos Labini

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of figures and tables

$P^a \delta^e \vee \wedge^n$

Introduction	1
1 Economic development in a secular perspective	17
2 Culture, institutions and resources	33
3 The inadequacy of mainstream economics to explain development processes: returns and prices	60
4 The inadequacy of mainstream economics to explain development processes: distribution and growth	78
5 Economic relations between developed and underdeveloped countries	96
6 Demographic pressure and the countries of increasing poverty	119
7 Dependent workers, employment and unemployment	138
8 Organizational and institutional innovations	158
9 The problem of corruption	172
Conclusion: a strategy for reform	183
Bibliography	199
Index	208