

NO MORE BASHING

BUILDING A NEW JAPAN-UNITED STATES ECONOMIC RELATIONSHIP

41

C. FRED BERGSTEN⁴¹
TAKATOSHI ITO
MARCUS NOLAND

Washington, DC
October 2001

ics

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 The Economic and Policy Context	1
A Reversal of Fortunes	2
The Global Positions	10
The Bilateral Relationship	14
Policy Alternatives	18
Conclusion	26
2 The Resurgence of the American Economy	31
The US Economy and Japan-United States Economic Relations	31
Sources of the US Economic Resurgence	38
Future Risks	48
Conclusion	58
3 The Japanese Economic Malaise	61
The Lost Decade	62
Economic Developments and Policy Reactions	65
The Bubble Economy	67
Financial-Sector Problems	69
Monetary Policy	85
Fiscal Policy	96

Trade Conflict and Yen Appreciation	100
Structural Reforms	103
Assessment	110
4 The Economics of Japan-United States Trade and Investment	113
The Economic Context	114
Government Policies	123
Regulatory Issues	134
Private Barriers	144
What Is at Stake?	149
5 Resolving Trade Disputes	157
Bilateral Relations	159
WTO Dispute Settlement	172
The Future WTO Agenda	177
Regional Initiatives	182
Assessment	186
Conclusions	189
6 Global Issues	193
International Finance	195
Development Assistance	207
Security Issues	216
Looking Toward the Future	222
Conclusions	231
7 Building a New Japan-United States Economic Relationship	233
The Case for Normalcy	233
Restoring Japanese Economic Vitality	238
Reorienting the Trade Relationship	242
Rebasing the Monetary Relationship	255
Reconfiguring Japan's Foreign Economic Policy	258
Toward Normalcy and Partnership	263
Appendix	267
References	291
Index	311