

Handbook of Electoral System Choice

Edited by

Josep M. Colomer

Research Professor in Political Science, Higher Council of Scientific Research, Barcelona, Spain

Foreword by

Bernard Grofman

Professor of Political Science and Mathematical Behavioral Science, University of California, Irvine, USA

Contents

List of Tables	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Foreword by Bernard Grofman	xi
List of Contributors	xxi
Part 1 Introduction
1 The Strategy and History of Electoral System Choice Josep M. Colomer	3
Part 2 The Americas
2 The Americas: General Overview Josep M. Colomer	81
3 Argentina: Compromising on a Qualified Plurality System Gabriel L. Negretto	110
4 Brazil: Democratizing with Majority Runoff Jairo M. Nicolau	121
5 Costa Rica: Modifying Majoritarianism with 40 per cent Threshold Fabrice Lehoucq	133
6 Mexico: Designing Electoral Rules by a Dominant Party Alberto Díaz-Cayeros and Beatriz Magaloni	145
7 The United States: the Past – Moving from Diversity to Uniform Single-Member Districts Erik J. Engstrom	155
8 The United States: the Future – Reconsidering Single-Member Districts and the Electoral College Richard L. Engstrom	164
Part 3 Western Europe
9 Western Europe: General Overview Josep M. Colomer	179

10	France: Reform-mongering Between Majority Runoff and Proportionality Gerard Alexander	209
11	Germany: Partisan Engineering of Personalized Proportional Representation Marcus Kreuzer	222
12	Italy: Lofty Ambitions and Unintended Consequences Diego Gambetta and Steven Warner	237
13	Spain: from Civil War to Proportional Representation Josep M. Colomer	253
14	Sweden: Introducing Proportional Representation from Above Leif Lewin	265
15	Switzerland: Introducing Proportional Representation from Below Georg Lutz	279
16	The United Kingdom: Reforming the Westminster Model Patrick Dunleavy and Helen Margetts	294
Part 4 Eastern Europe
17	Eastern Europe: General Overview Carlos Flores Juberias	309
18	The Baltics: Independence with Divergent Electoral Systems Evald Mikkel and Vello Pettai	332
19	The Czech Republic: Entrenching Proportional Representation Petr Kopecký	347
20	Hungary: Compromising Midway on a Mixed System John W. Schiemann	359
21	Poland: Learning to Manipulate Electoral Rules Marek M. Kaminski and Monika A. Nalepa	369
22	Russia: Compromising a Long-Lasting Transitional Formula Olga V. Shvetsova	382
Part 5 Africa
23	Africa: Dictatorial and Democratic Electoral Systems since 1946 Matt Golder and Leonard Wantchekon	401
24	Africa: Electoral Systems in Emerging Democracies Shaheen Mozaffar	419

25	South Africa: Proportional Representation in the Puzzle to Stabilize Democracy Andrew Reynolds	440
Part 6 Asia and the Pacific
26	Asia and the Pacific: General Overview Allen Hicken	453
27	Australia: Replacing Plurality Rule with Majority-Preferential Voting Marian Sawer	475
28	India: Majoritarian Democracy from Above Subrata K. Mitra	487
29	Indonesia: Transition and Change but Electoral System Continuity Andrew Ellis	497
30	Japan: Manipulating Multi-Member Districts – from SNTV to a Mixed System Junichiro Wada	512
31	New Zealand: Reform by (Nearly) Immaculate Design Jack H. Nagel	530
	Appendix: Notes and Sources for Summary Tables	544
	Glossary and Index	547