

The Political Economy of Hurricane Katrina and Community Rebound

Edited by

Emily Chamlee-Wright

Elbert H. Neese Professor of Economics, Beloit College and Affiliated Senior Scholar, Mercatus Center, George Mason University, USA

and

Virgil Henry Storr

*Senior Research Fellow and Director, Graduate Student Programs, Mercatus Center, George Mason University and the Don C. Lavoie Fellow, Program in Philosophy, Politics and Economics, Department of Economics, George Mason
University, USA*

NEW THINKING IN POLITICAL ECONOMY

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of	figures	vii
List of tables		viii
List of contributors		ix
1 Introduction: Uncertainty and discovery in a post-disaster context Emily Chamlee-Wright and Virgil Henry Storr		1
PART I OVERCOMING UNCERTAINTY AND TAPPING THE CREATIVE POTENTIAL OF THE PUBLIC AND COMMERCIAL SECTORS
2 Uncertainty in the post-Katrina Big Easy Adam Martin		13
3 The use of knowledge in natural disaster relief management Russell S. Sobel and Peter T. Leeson		31
4 Making hurricane response more effective: lessons from the private sector and the Coast Guard during Katrina Steven Horwitz		46
5 Restricting reconstruction: occupational licensing and natural disasters David Skarbek		72
PART II RECOVERY FROM THE BOTTOM UP: PRIVATE CITIZENS LEVERAGING SOCIAL RESOURCES
6 The role of social entrepreneurship in post-Katrina community recovery Emily Chamlee-Wright and Virgil Henry Storr		87
7 Entrepreneurship and social networks in post-disaster environments Petrik Runst		107
8 Rock me like a hurricane!: how music communities promote social capital adept for recovery Daniel J. D'Amico		126

PART III DISCOVERY AND RESPONSE IN COMPARATIVE CONTEXTS

- 9 Lessons from post-flood recovery of New Orleans and Prague 143
Leonid O. Krasnozhon and Daniel M. Rothschild
- 10 Earth, wind, and fire! Federalism and incentive in natural 159 disaster response
Emily C. Schaeffer and Andrew Kashdan

PART IV TAKING STOCK OF POST-KATRINA POLICY INITIATIVES

- 11 The Road Home: helping homeowners in the Gulf after Katrina 185
Eileen Norcross and Anthony Skriba
- 12 School choice and post-Katrina New Orleans: an analysis 215
Jeb Bleckley and Joshua Hall
- 13 Improving academics in the aftermath: a case study of New 231
Orleans' experiment with charter schools
Erin Marie Agemy

- Index* 253