

Governing the World's Money

Edited by

DAVID M. ANDREWS,
C. RANDALL HENNING,
& LOUIS W. PAULY

Cornell University Press

Ithaca and London

CONTENTS

Preface ix
Contributors xiii

1. Monetary Institutions, Financial Integration, and Political Authority DAVID M. ANDREWS, C. RANDALL HENNING, LOUIS W. PAULY	1
2. The Evolution of Political Economy ROBERT GILPIN	19
3. Bretton Woods and Its Competitors: The Political Economy of Institutional Choice MILES KAHLER	38
4. Toward a Broader Public-Choice Analysis of the International Monetary Fund THOMAS D. WILLETT	60
5. Currency Unions and Policy Domains PETER B. KENEN	78
6. EMU as an Evolutionary Process PIER CARLO PADOAN	105
7. State Building, the Territorialization of Money, and the Creation of the American Single Currency KATHLEEN R. MCNAMARA	128

8. Why Are Territorial Currencies Becoming Unpopular? ERIC HELLEINER	148
9. Bounded Rationality and the World Political Economy JOHN S. ODELL	168
10. Webs of Governance and the Privatization of Transnational Regulation PHILIP G. CERNY	194
Index	217