

Learning from Foreign Models in Latin American Policy Reform

Edited by Kurt Weyland

Woodrow Wilson Center Press
Washington, D.C.

The Johns Hopkins University Press
Baltimore and London

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xi
1. Learning from Foreign Models in Latin American Policy Reform: An Introduction	1
> Kurt Weyland
2. External Models, International Influence, and the Politics of Social Sector Reforms	35
Joan M. Nelson
3. International Financial Institutions and the Diffusion of Foreign Models for Social Security Reform in Latin America	53
Sarah M. Brooks
4. The Argentine Pension System Reform and International Lessons	81
Gustavo Demarco

5. The Politics of Social Security Reform in Brazil Vinicius C. Pinheiro	110
6. Foreign Models in the Adoption of Unemployment Insurance in Brazil Jose Paulo Zeetano Chahad	139
7. Ideological Marketization and Policy Learning in Chile: The Case of Unemployment Insurance Louise Haagh with David Bravo	166
8. The Influence of Foreign Models on Health Reform in Colombia Juan Pablo Uribe	196
9. The Role of Foreign Models in Mexican Healthcare Reforms of the 1990s Carlos Cruz and Elena Carrera	219
10. Conclusion: Lessons about Learning in Latin American Policy Reform Kurt Weyland	241
Contributors	285
Index	287