

Internationalizing China

Domestic Interests and Global Linkages

DAVID ZWEIG

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

ITHACA AND LONDON

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Tables	x
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: China's Internationalization in Context	1
1 Explaining Internationalization: Channels, Resources, and Fevers	23
2 Segmented Deregulation and the Politics of Urban Internationalization	49
3 Internationalizing Rural China: Exports, Foreign Direct Investment, and Developmental Communities	107
4 Dollars, Scholars, and Fevers: The Political Economy of Educational Internationalization	161
5 Controlling the Opening: The Struggle over Overseas Development Assistance	211
Conclusion: Bringing Down the Barriers	259
Index	279