

The Economics of FORCED LABOR The Soviet Gulag

EDITED BY

Paul R. Gregory and Valery Lazarev

FOREWORD BY

Robert Conquest

HOOVER INSTITUTION PRESS

Stanford University Stanford, California

Contents

Foreword	vii
Robert Conquest
Acknowledgments	xiii
Contributors	xv
1 An Introduction to the Economics of the Gulag	1
Paul Gregory
2 Forced Labor in Soviet Industry: The End of the 1930s to the Mid-1950s: An Overview	23
Andrei Sokolov
3 The Economy of the OGPU, NKVD, and MVD of the USSR, 1930-1953: The Scale, Structure, and Trends of Development	43
Oleg Khlevnyuk
4 The End of the Gulag	67
Aleksei Tikhonov
5 Coercion versus Motivation: Forced Labor in Norilsk	75
Leonid Borodkin and Simon Ertz
6 Magadan and the Economic History of Dalstroi in the 1930s	105
David Nordlander
7 Building Norilsk	127
Simon Ertz
8 The White Sea-Baltic Canal	151
Mikhail Morukov
9 The Gulag in Karelia: 1929 to 1941	163
Christopher Joyce
10 Conclusions	189
Valery Lazarev
List of Acronyms	199
Index	203