

Land & Identity

Theory, Memory, and Practice

Edited by Christine Berberich,
Neil Campbell, and Robert Hudson

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements

Notes on Contributors

Christine Berberich, Neil Campbell & Robert Hudson

Introduction:

Framing and Reframing Land and Identity

Section A Land and Identity: Theories and Philosophies

- 1 David Crouch
Landscape, Land and Identity:
A Performative Consideration
- 2 Fran Speed
Nature Qua Identity:
Nature, Culture and Relational Integrity
- 3 Donna Landry
The Geopolitical Picturesque

Section B Landscapes of Memory: Eschatology, Trauma, and Diaspora

- 4 Kirby Farrell
Eschatological Landscape
- 5 Jenni Adams
Cities Under a Sky of Mud:
Landscapes of Mourning in Holocaust Texts

6	Moy McCrory
	"This Time and Now":
	Identity and Belonging in the Irish Diaspora:
	The Irish in Britain and Second-Generational Silence	165

Section C
Literary Landscapes:
Urbanism, Ecology and the Rural

7	Elsa Cavalie
	"And I found myself looking through another window at a darker landscape inhabited by neither the present nor the past": Recovering Identity in A Month in the Country	193
8	Monica Germana
	Beyond the Gaps:
	Postmodernist Representations of the Metropolis	213
9	Brian Jarvis
	"It is always another world": Mapping the Global
	Imaginary in William Gibson's Pattern Recognition	235
10	Alex Lockwood
	The Shore is Not a Beach	259
	Christine Berberich & Neil Campbell
	Afterword:
	Lines of Flight: Unframing Land, Unframing Identity – Two	^§3
	Speculations
	Index	305