

The Politics of Expertise

Competing for Authority in Global Governance

Ole Jacob Sending

University of Michigan Press
Ann Arbor

Contents

Foreword ix

Patrick Thaddeus Jackson, Configurations Series Editor

Acknowledgments xi

Part I

Introduction: Authority in Global Governance 3

Chapter 1. Competing for Authority: Recognition and Field Dynamics in Global Governance n

Part II

Chapter 2. Diplomats, Lawyers, and the Emergence of International Rule 33

Chapter 3. Ethnographic Sagacity and International Rule 55

Part III

Chapter 4. Genesis of the Field of Transnational Population Governance 81

Chapter 5. Safeguarding Positions, Transforming the Field:
The Field Population of 1974-1994 103

Conclusion: Fields and the Study of Global Governance 125

Notes 135

Bibliography 139

Index 155