

---

Catalysing Development?

A Debate on Aid

---

Jan P. Pronk et al.

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Preface	xi
1 Aid as a Catalyst Jan P. Pronk	1
2 Unpacking Aid James K. Boyce	21
3 Aid as a Flight Forward Louis Emmerij	29
4 Aid is an Unreliable Joystick Gud Edgren	43
5 Development Goals, Governance and Capacity Building: Aid as a Catalyst John Degnbol-Martinussen	51
6 Age of Reverse Aid: Neoliberalism as Catalyst of Regression James Petras and Henry Veltmeyer	63
7 Aid, Conditionality and Development Ajit Singh	77
8 The Effectiveness of Policy Conditionality: Eight Country Experiences A. Geske Dijkstra	89
9 Aid and the Geopolitics of the Post-Colonial: Critical Reflections on New Labour's Overseas Development Strategy David Slater and Morag Bell	117
10 Good Governance and Aid: Selectivity Criteria in Development Assistance Wil Hout	143
11 International Development Targets and Official Development Assistance Santosh Mehrotra	161

12	Aid Effectiveness and Policy Ownership Rehman Sobhan	171
13	It is Possible to Just Give Money to the Poor Joseph Hanlon	181
14	Aid as a Catalyst: A Rejoinder Jan P. Pronk	201
	Index	209