

Governance and Regionalism in Asia

Edited by Nicholas Thomas

S ^ i Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

0

List of illustrations	xi
List of contributors	xii
Preface	xv
Foreword	xvi
RODOLFO C. SEVERINO JNR	•
Acknowledgements	xx
Abbreviations	xxi
1 Understanding regional governance in Asia	1
NICHOLAS THOMAS
2 Evolving regional governance in East Asia: from ASEAN to an East Asian community	32
MELYCABALLERO-ANTHONY
3 Japan and regional governance in East Asia: expanding involvement, stagnated influence?	66
HIDETAKA YOSHIMATSU
4 South Korea and East Asian regionalism: policies, norms and challenges	93
JAEWOO CHOO
5 China's regional governance: developing norms and institutions	116
NICHOLAS THOMAS
6 Australia and Asian Institutional networks: bilateral preferences, multilateral gains	146
JAMES COTTON
7 India and East Asia: through the looking glass	173
ISABELLE SAINT-MEZARD

x	Contents
8	The United States and regional governance in East Asia: the changing face of American power THOMAS G. MOORE	196
9	The role of law in governing regionalism in Asia PAUL J. DAVIDSON	224
10	East Asian governance: indications for policy cooperation, regionalism and financial integration DOUGLAS W. ARNER, PAUL LEJOT AND WEI WANG	250
11	Regional governance and disaster response ALAIN GUILLOUX	278
12	Asia/Europe and the construction of regional governance STEPHANIE LAWSON	301
13	New modes of regionalising governance in Asia KANISHKA JAYASURIYA	321
	Index	334