

IFC and Its Role in Globalization

Highlights from IFC's Participants Meeting • Washington, D.C.

June 6<sup>7</sup>,2001

Table of Contents

Preface vii

Suellen Lambert Lazarus—Director, Syndications and International Securities, International Finance Corporation

Acknowledgments ix

Abbreviations and Acronyms x

SECTION I At the Center of Globalization

Chapter 1 The Unique Role of the International Finance Corporation 3

Peter L. Woicke— Executive Vice President, International Finance
Corporation, and Managing<sup>1</sup> Director, Private Sector Development,
World Bank

Chapter 2 The Global Implications of Poverty 7

James D. Wolfensohn—President, The World Bank Group

Chapter 3 Globalization as an International System 10

Thomas L. Friedman—Foreign Affairs Columnist, The New York Times

Chapter 4 International Financial Stability and Sustained Growth 21

Horst Kohler—Managing Director, International Monetary Fund

Chapter 5 The Consequences of Globalization for Asian Banking 27

John T. Olds—Special Advisor to the Chairman, DBS Bank,
Singapore

SECTION II The International Finance Corporation and Our Market Environment

Chapter 6 Update on Financing Operations 37

Assaad J. Jabre—Vice President, Operations, International Finance Corporation

Chapter 7 Portfolio Performance and Future Plans 43

Farida Khambata—Vice President, Portfolio and Risk Management,
International Finance Corporation

Chapter 8 Trends in Syndicated Lending 47

Suellen Lambert Lazarus—Director, Syndications and International Securities, International Finance Corporation

Chapter 9 Restructuring Problem Loans 54

Mary Elizabeth Ward—Manager, B-Loan Management Division,
International Finance Corporation

SECTION III Enhancing Value: Investing in Sustainability and Corporate Governance

Chapter 10 Sustainability: A Portfolio Manager's Perspective 59

Julie Fox Gorte—Senior Environment and Technology Analyst, The Calvert Group

Chapter 11 Sustainability: A Commercial Bank's Perspective 64

Bart Jan Krouwel—Managing Director, Sustainability and Social Innovation Group, Rabobank Nederland

Chapter 12 Corporate Governance: A Call to Action 69

Peter H. Sullivan—Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Lombard
Investments, Inc.

Chapter 13 Corporate Governance: Its Impact on Investment Flows 77

Peter C. Clapman—Senior Vice President and Chief Counsel,
Investments, Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association-College
Retirement Equities Fund

Chapter 14 The International Finance Corporation's Focus on Corporate Governance 81

Mike Lubrano—Senior Investment Officer, Financial Markets
Advisory Department, International Finance Corporation

SECTION IV The New Basel Capital Accord: Implications for Bank Lending to Emerging Markets

Chapter 15 An Overview of the New Basel Capital Accord 87

Jonathan L. Fiechter—Senior Deputy Comptroller for International and Economic Affairs, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

Chapter 16 Country Risk in Basel 2 96

Frans Cornelissen—Senior Vice President, Head of Country Risk
Management, ABN AMRO Bank

Chapter 17 Basel 2 and Emerging Markets 100

Ernest Napier—Managing Director, Financial Services Group,
Standard & Poor's

Chapter 18 Basel 2: Possible Impact on the International Finance Corporation's B-Loan Program 105

Dirk Müller—Partner, Financial Services Consulting,
Risk Management, KPMG

SECTION V The Business of Project Financing

Chapter 19 Dealing with Portfolio Problems: Two Cases

Part (a): A. O. Volga, Russian Federation 111

Jyrki I. Koskelo—Director, Special Operations, International Finance Corporation

Charles Van der Mandele—Chief Special Operations Officer, International Finance Corporation

Anke Avderung—Director, Global Debt Origination, Dresdner Klienwort Wasserstein

Francis Hamilton—Senior Adviser, Syndications, International Finance Corporation

Part (b): Tuntex Petrochemical Thailand 122

Eric Jourdanet—Senior Investment Officer, Oil, Gas, and Chemicals Department, International Finance Corporation

Alma Ourazalinova—Participations Officer, Syndications and International Securities, International Finance Corporation

Vera Reusens—Senior Manager, Global Export and Project Finance, Fortis Bank

Chapter 20 Investing in Environmental Projects 133

Louis Boorstin—Manager, Environmental Markets Group, International Finance Corporation

Brooks Browne—President, Environmental Enterprises Assistance Fund

James D. Westfield—Managing Consultant, PA Consulting Group

SECTION VI Innovations

Chapter 21 The B-Loan Website 147

Andy McCartney—Managing Director, eHatchery, LLC

James Smouse—Project Manager, B-Loan Website, International Finance Corporation

Chapter 22 Investing in Education: NIIT Student Loan Program 155

Guy Ellena—Technical Manager, Health and Education Department,
International Finance Corporation

C. N. (Madhu) Madhusudan—President, Strategic Alliances, National Institute of Information Technology (USA), Inc.

Nicholas Vickery—Investment Officer, Financial Markets, South Asia
Department, International Finance Corporation

Program of Meeting 166

List of Attendees 173