

Greig Charnock • Guido Starosta
Editors

The New International Division of Labour

Global Transformation and Uneven Development

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

| | | |
|----------|---|------------|
| 1 | Introduction: The New International Division of Labour and the Critique of Political Economy Today | 1 |
| | Part I Capital and the International Division of Labour | 23 |
| 2 | The General Rate of Profit and Its Realisation in the Differentiation of Industrial Capitals | 25 |
| 3 | The Global Accumulation of Capital and Ground-Rent in ‘Resource Rich’ Countries | 55 |
| 4 | Revisiting the New International Division of Labour Thesis | 79 |
| | Part II Country Case Studies | 105 |
| 5 | ‘Post-neoliberalism’ in the International Division of Labour: The Divergent Cases of Ecuador and Venezuela | 107 |

| | | |
|----------|---|------------|
| 6 | The New International Division of Labour in ‘High-Tech Production’: The Genesis of Ireland’s Boom in the 1990s | 127 |
| 7 | New International Division of Labour and Differentiated Integration in Europe: The Case of Spain | 157 |
| | Part III Sectoral Case Studies | 181 |
| 8 | Transnational Corporations and the ‘Restructuring’ of the Argentine Automotive Industry: Change or Continuity? | 183 |
| 9 | Patterns of ‘State-Led Development’ in Brazil and South Korea: The Steel Manufacturing Industries | 215 |
| | Index | 245 |