

The Allure of the Foreign

Imported Goods in
Postcolonial Latin America

EDITED BY BENJAMIN ORLOVE

Ann Arbor

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN PRESS

Contents

Chapter

1. Giving Importance to Imports	1
Benjamin Orlove and Arnold J. Bauer
2. Changing Consumption Patterns and Everyday Life in Two Peruvian Regions: Food, Dress, and Housing in the Central and Southern Highlands (1820-1920)	31
Thomas Kriiggeler
3. From Benches to Sofas: Diversification of Patterns of Consumption in San Jose (1857-1861)	67
Patricia Vega Jimenez
4. Foreign Cloth in the Lowland Frontier: Commerce and Consumption of Textiles in Bolivia, 1830-1930	93
Erick D. Longer
5. Chile in the Belle Epoque: Primitive Producers, Civilized Consumers	113
Benjamin Orlove and Arnold J. Bauer
6. Imports and Standards of Justice on the Mexico-United States Border	151
Josiah McC. Heyman
7. Building from Migration: Imported Design and Everyday Use of Migrant Houses in Mexico	185
Peri L. Fletcher
Bibliography	203
Contributors	215
Index	217