

WHITE WORLD
ORDER, BLACK
POWER POLITICS

THE BIRTH OF AMERICAN
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

ROBERT VITALIS

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

Ithaca and London

CONTENTS

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xiii

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| Introduction: A Mongrel AmericanSocial Science  | 1          |
| PART I. THE NOBLE SCIENCE OF IMPERIALRELATIONS AND ITS LAWS OF RACEDEVELOPMENT | 25  |
| 1. Empire by Association  | 29         |
| 2. Race Children  | 46         |
| PART II. WORLDS OF COLOR   | 55  |
| 3. Storm Centers of Political Theory andPractice  | 59         |
| 4. Imperialism and Internationalismin the 1920s   | 71         |
| PART III. THE NORTH VERSUS THEBLACK ATLANTIC  | 85  |
| 5. Making the World Safe for "Minorities"   | 93         |
| 6. The Philanthropy of Masters  | 106        |
| PART IV. "THE DARK WORLD GOES FREE"  | 121 |
| 7. The First but Not Last Crisisof a Cold War Profession                                    | 129        |
| 8. Hands of Ethiopia  | 143        |
| 9. The Fate of the Howard School  | 158        |

CONTENTS

Conclusion: The High Plane of Dignity and Discipline

Notes 183

Bibliography 233

Index 263