

Just Exchange

A theory of contract

F.H. Buckley

Routledge

† Taylor & Francis Group

LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

List of illustrations

Preface

PART I

The enforcement of contracts

1 The promising game

How to create a game 7

Hume on promising 13

The principle of fidelity 17

2 Rival theories of contract law

Reliance theories 22

Benefits theories 26

Will theories 27

3 The economic theory of contract law

The need for trust 36

Beneficial reliance 38

Credible commitments 41

Substitutes for contract law 43

4 Fidelity to promising

Respect, gratitude and consent 51

Natural duties of support 55

PART II

The limits of bargaining freedom

5 Soft paternalism

Minors and incompetents 64

Judgment heuristics 67

Weakness of the will 84

Screening 99

6 Private perfectionism 102

Perfectionism and neutralism 103

Endogenous preferences 108

Internalizes 110

Liberal perfectionism and conservative neutralism 111

7 Social perfectionism 116

Moral externalities 116

Common law illegality 119

The harm-to-others principle 121

The disintegration thesis 124

The case for neutralism 131

8 Substantive fairness 136

Game theoretic bargaining solutions 137

Cooperation theories 144

Incentive theories 148

Screening theories 151

Standard form contracts 152

9 Contractarian virtue 157

The cultural contradictions of contract law 158

The Romantic objection 165

Notes 174

Index 198