

Small Economies' Adjustment to Global Challenges

edited by

Zoltán BARA

and

László CSABA

Aula Publishing Co. Ltd
Budapest

Content

List of figures	IX
List of tables	X
List of contributors	XIII

INTRODUCTION

1 Bottom-up globalisation: introduction and overview
Zoltán Bara	3

PART ONE: GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

2 Technology, new globalisation, old cultural identities and the emergence of new small countries	X
Josep C. Brada	17
New globalisation.....	19
Small countries and the new globalism.....	23
Technology and the production of culture.....	26
The international underpinnings of the nation state	27
3 Learning firms and their adjustment to global trends
Katalin Szabó	31
What is a learning firm?	32
'Last bastion of monarchy' or postmodern learning organisation?	34
Learning firms in Hungary	38
4 Networks as boundaryless organisations
Éva Kocsis	53
Network as business organisation of the information economy.....	54
Strategy of open gates and reciprocal learning.....	57
Entering global market niches.....	59

	Customer learning and digitalised office.....	61
	Passage between the market and the hierarchy.....	62
5	Globalisation of corporate networks and its implications for the enterprise sphere of small European transition countries
	Jana Šereghyová	69
	Past benefits and future challenges of the globalisation process for central European countries in transition	70
	The present pattern of linking enterprises in CETCs into global corporate networks	72
	Networking practices applied by MNCs in individual CETCs	74
	Recent changes in ‘sourcing habits’ of west-European MNC: new opportunities opening for industrial enterprises in CETCs	78
	The ‘deepening’ of the subdelivery base of MNCs and its implications for the enterprise sphere of CETC.....	80
6	Capital flows as the central banker’s straitjacket
	Michael Keren	95
	The model.....	97
	The game	101
	The fundamentals	104
	Inflation or unemployment? The problem of persistence.....	107
	The skills of the bank: some limitations of the model.....	108
 PART TWO: COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES OF ADJUSTMENT OF SMALL COUNTRIES
7	Portugal’s European integration
	Jorge Braga de Macedo	115
	The imbalance between political and economic integration	117
	The constraints on fiscal adjustment	120
	Economic management in an open economy	122
	Structural adjustment and foreign investment.....	125

8	GerschenCronian anachronism. Progress report on east Asia's miracle, crisis and transformation
	István Zsolt Benczes	129
	Catching up and late industrialisation	130
	Which capitalism? From developmental state to crony capitalism	133
	Emergence of a new structuralism	137
	An ailing financial sector or a weak state?	141
	Restructuring the economy	143
9	What matters for economic success? Greece and Ireland compared
	Andrea Boltho	151
	Two contrasting experiences	152
	Why the differencies?	157
10	Entrepreneurial strategies and internationalisation: The case of FIAT in Poland
	Bruno Dallago	171
	FIAT: basic organisational features and company development.....	173
	The process of internationalisation of FIAT Auto	174
	The car industry and eastern Europe after transition	179
	FIAT in central and eastern Europe: the Polish connection	183
	Domestic and external outcome of investment in Poland	191
	Knowledge, firm-specific investment, incentives: an assessment of motivations and learning based on an interview project with FIAT Auto	195
	Strategies, achievements and outcomes of Italian components suppliers: The case of Magneti Marelli	200
11	Globalisation and world financial turmoil: a test for Israel's economic policy
	Daniel Gottlieb	213
	Globalisation and sovereign credit rating	214
	Growth and sustainability – the case of Israel	219
	Israel's policy response to world financial crisis	228

12	Structural upgrading in manufacturing under transition. A comparative analysis of eight countries
	Attila K. Soós	245
	Methodological problems of measurement	246
	Database and indicators.....	248
	Summarising structure and quality: country rankings.....	253
	Comparison with results of previous research.....	257
	Estimation.....	264
	Bifurcation between structural upgrading and quantitative growth?.....	272

PART THREE: THE INTEGRATION OF HUNGARY TO THE GLOBAL WORLD ECONOMY

12	Hungary on the road to the European Union
	László Práger	297
	Hungarian identity and European values.....	298
	Dividing the whole into parts	300
	The place of Hungary in Europe.	301
	Economic progress and the trends of development.....	303
	Coming closer or drifting apart	310
13	Coordination mechanisms and inter-firm relationships: supplier-customer relationships between Hungarian firms and multinational corporations
	José de Sousa	315
	Transaction cost economics: cooperation as a 'hybrid form'.....	317
	Richardson's approach: elements for a widening interpretation of inter-firm cooperation	319
	Coordination mechanisms of inter-firm cooperation	321
	The implementation of inter-organisational routines	327
	The data.....	327
	Empirical results.....	329
	Appendix	339

14	The impact of capital flows on emerging markets: the case of Hungary
	István Magas	341
	Fix or float: diverging views	342
	Mixed record of controlling mechanisms	344
	The case for capital mobility	346
	Harder regulation on bailing out banks	348
	Exchange rate policy in Hungary: good performance of the crawling peg	349
15	Adjustment of Hungarian engineering companies to globalising corporate networks
	Andrea Szalavetz	357
	On the static components of modernisation	360
	Dynamic components of modernisation	368
16	The impact of foreign direct investment on corporate governance: the case of the Hungarian telecommunications
	Gábor Lukács	377
	General propositions on FDI	378
	Privatisation through foreign capital influx: the case of Matáv	383
	Theory and evidence	388
 PART FOUR: A SUMMARY VIEW AND PERSPECTIVES
17	Small economies' adjustment to international economic disturbances
	László Csaba	397
	The political economy of country size	398
	The challenge of international economic disturbances of 1997–1999	406
	Perspectives of small economies	411
	SUBJECT INDEX	419
	INDEX	427