

MAX WEBER

Essays in Economic Sociology

EDITED BY RICHARD SWEDBERG

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY

CONTENTS

NOTE ON THE TEXTS OF THE READINGS	vii
INTRODUCTION, by Richard Swedberg	3
PART I: MODERN CAPITALISM	41
ONE Modern Capitalism: Key Characteristics and Key Institutions	43
TWO The Spirit of Capitalism	52
THREE The Market	75
FOUR The Beginnings of the Firm	80
FIVE Class, Status, and Party	83
PART II: CAPITALISM, LAW, AND POLITICS	97
SIX The Three Types of Legitimate Domination	99
SEVEN The Bureaucratization of Politics and the Economy	109
EIGHT The Rational State and Its Legal System	116
NINE The National State and Economic Policy (Freiburg Address)	120
TEN The Social Causes of the Decay of Ancient Civilization	138
PART III: CAPITALISM, CULTURE, AND RELIGION	155
ELEVEN The Evolution of the Capitalist Spirit	157
TWELVE The Protestant Sects and the Spirit of Capitalism	168
THIRTEEN Kinship and Capitalism in China	179

FOURTEEN
The Caste System in India	185
FIFTEEN
Charity in Ancient Palestine	189
PART IV: THEORETICAL ASPECTS OF ECONOMIC SOCIOLOGY	197
SIXTEEN
Sociological Categories of Economic Action	199
SEVENTEEN
The Area of Economics, Economic Theory, and the Ideal Type	242
EIGHTEEN
Marginal Utility Analysis and "The Fundamental Law of Psychophysics"	249
GLOSSARY
Key Concepts in Weber's Economic Sociology	261
A BIBLIOGRAPHICAL GUIDE TO WEBER'S ECONOMIC SOCIOLOGY	287
INDEX	303