

Ingmar Hienen

Impact of Religion on Business Ethics in Europe and the Muslim World

Islamic versus Christian Tradition

PETER LANG

Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Bern • New York • Paris • Wien

List of contents

Acknowledgements.....	3
List of contents.....	5
List of tables.....	11
List of illustrations.....	13
List of abbreviations.....	15
CHAPTER I.
PROBLEM DEFINITION AND RESEARCH OBJECTIVES.....	17
A. Research focus.....	17
B. Research objective.....	19
C. Research questions.....	21
CHAPTER II.
STATE-OF-THE-ART REVIEW.....	23
A. Introduction.....	23
B. Intercultural studies.....	23
C. Studies on religions.....	25
D. Studies on ethics and on business ethics.....	26
E. Benefits and limitations.....	30

CHAPTER III.

THEORETICAL STUDY:

FINDINGS, ANALYSIS, SYNTHESIS AND EVALUATION.....	31
A. Definition of "Europe" and the "Muslim World".....	31
B. Rights and wrongs in Islam and Christianity.....	35
1. Islam.....	36
a) Constituent elements and history of Islam.....	36
(1) The foundation.....	36
(2) The Koran.....	37
(3) The different denominations.....	37
b) Islamic ethics.....	38
(1) The confession.....	39
(2) The alms tax.....	39
(3) The month of fasting.....	39
(4) The pilgrimage to Mecca.....	39
(5) The prayer.....	39
c) Islamic business ethics.....	40
(1) The concept of property.....	40
(2) The concept of labour.....	41
(3) The concept of the environment.....	42
(4) The historic Muslim approach to exchange and trade.....	42
(5) The payment of interest.....	43
(6) The idea of an Islamic economic system.....	44
(7) The insurance sector.....	45
2. Christianity.....	45
a) Constituent elements and history of Christianity.....	45
(1) The foundation.....	45
(2) The Bible.....	46
(3) The different denominations.....	46

b) Christian ethics.....	48
(1) The 10 commandments.....	48
(2) The commandment of love.....	48
(3) The basis of Christian humaneness.....	49
(4) The mission.....	49
c) Christian business ethics.....	49
(1) The concept of property.....	50
(2) The concept of labour.....	50
(3) The concept of the environment.....	51
(4) The payment of interest.....	51
C. Two ethical modes of operations.....	52
1. Islamic banking and insurance.....	53
a) Claims based on goods with predictable income stream.....	54
b) Claims based on goods with unpredictable income stream.....	54
c) Claims on income streams resulting from commercial transactions.....	55
d) Claims concerning debts payable at certain future dates.....	55
e) Islamic insurance.....	56
2. Co-operative banking and insurance.....	56
D. Synthesis and evaluation of theory.....	60
Europe and the Muslim World.....	60
Islam and Christianity.....	60
Islamic and Co-operative banking.....	60
Islamic financial instruments.....	61
Co-operative financial organisation.....	61

CHAPTER IV.

PLANS, METHODS AND MEANS OF RESEARCH.....	63
A. Need for a research method.....	63
B. Research method used for this project.....	63
C. Design of the questionnaire.....	65

CHAPTER V.

EMPIRICAL STUDY:

FINDINGS, ANALYSIS, SYNTHESIS AND EVALUATION.....67

A. Hypotheses.....67

B. Returns.....68

C. Islamic banking.....69

1. Islamic banking in Europe.....70

Dar Al-Maal Al-Islami (DMI) Trust.....70

(1) DMI headquarters and administration.....70

(2) Faisal Finance (Switzerland) S.A.....73

(3) Pan Islamic Consultancy Services Istishara S.A.....74

(4) Islamic Investment Company of the Gulf (Bahrain) E.C.....74

(5) Islamic Takafol and Retakafol (Bahamas) Company Ltd.....76

2. Islamic banking in the Muslim World.....78

a) Supra-national government banks.....78

Islamic Development Bank.....78

b) Albaraka Investment and Development Company.....81

Albaraka Islamic Investment Bank.....81

c) Arab Banking Corporation.....82

(1) Bahrain Islamic Bank.....82

(2) ABC International Bank pic.....83

d) Local Islamic banks.....84

(1) Faisal Islamic Bank of Egypt S.A.....84

(2) Faisal Islamic Bank of Kibris Limited.....85

(3) Malayan Banking Berhad.....87

(4) Bank Islam Malaysia Berhad.....88

(5) BankMuamalat.....90

e) The case of Pakistan.....91

(1) Muslim Commercial Bank.....91

(2) Agricultural Development Bank of Pakistan.....93

(3) Industrial Development Bank of Pakistan.....95

(4) Saudi-Pak Industrial & Agricultural Investment Company (PVT) Ltd.....	96
(5) First Women Bank Limited.....	98
D. Co-operative banking.....	100
1. Co-operative banking in Europe.....	101
a) Banks of ethical origin.....	101
(1) DGBank.....	101
(2) Berliner Volksbank eG.....	103
(3) Frankfurter Volksbank eG.....	104
(4) Sudwestbank AG.....	104
(5) Deutsche Apotheker- u. Arztebank eG.....	106
b) Religion guided banks.....	107
(1) Bank flir Kirche und Diakonie eG.....	107
(2) Evangelische Darlehns-genossenschaft eG.....	109
c) Non-religious ethical banks.....	110
(1) Credit Cooperatif.....	110
(2) The Co-operative Bank.....	111
(3) National Federation of Credit Unions.....	112
2. Co-operative banking in the Muslim World.....	113
Grameen Bank.....	113
E. Synthesis and results.....	115
1. Europe: Co-operative banking versus Islamic banking.....	115
2. Muslim World: Co-operative banking versus Islamic banking.....	115
3. Islamic banking: Europe versus the Muslim World.....	115
4. Co-operative banking: Europe versus the Muslim World.....	119
F. Conclusions and further research.....	121
Conclusions.....	121
Further research.....	122

LIST OF REFERENCES.....	124
APPENDICES.....	131
Appendix A. Overview of Arabic terms.....	131
Appendix B. Numeric comparisons.....	132
World Religions.....	132
Europe and the Muslim World.....	133
Near and Middle East.....	133
Africa.....	134
Indian Subcontinent, Afghanistan and Kyrgyzstan.....	134
Southeast Asia.....	134
Muslim countries in Europe.....	134
Appendix C. Questionnaires.....	135
Appendix D. Institutions covered by this research.....	142
Appendix E. Highlights of the financial performance.....	146
1. Islamic banking in Europe.....	146
Dar Al-Maal Al-Islami (DMI) Trust.....	146
2. Islamic banking in the Muslim World.....	149
a) Supra-national government banks.....	149
b) Albaraka Investment and Development Company.....	150
c) Arab Banking Corporation.....	151
d) Local Islamic banks.....	152
e) The case of Pakistan.....	157
3. Co-operative banking in Europe.....	162
a) Banks of ethical origin.....	162
b) Religion guided banks.....	167
c) Non-religious ethical banks.....	168
4. Co-operative banking in the Muslim World.....	170
Thesis summary.....	171