

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

The new realities

Michael Armstrong and Angela Baron

INSTITUTE OF PERSONNEL AND DEVELOPMENT

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	xi
Foreword by Ron Collard	XII
INTRODUCTION	1
PART I: THE FOUNDATIONS OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	5
1 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT - DEFINITION, CONCERNS AND SCOPE	7
Performance management denned - Concerns of performance management - The scope of performance management
2 THE MANAGEMENT OF PERFORMANCE	12
Features of an effective organisation - Performance - Management - Processes for managing performance - Implications for performance management
3 A SHORT HISTORY OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	19
Antecedents - Merit-rating and performance appraisal (earlier versions) - Management by objectives - Critical- incident technique - Behaviourally anchored rating scales - Performance appraisal (1970s version) - Enter performance management - Why performance management?

VI CONTENTS

4	THE ESSENCE OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	49
	What is performance management? - What does performance management set out to do? - Why is performance management necessary? - How does performance management work? - Overall performance rating - Performance-related pay - Performance management issues - Principles of performance management - Benefits of performance management - Criteria for success
5	CRITIQUES OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AND APPRAISAL	85
	The critical arena - Commentary
PART II: PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT IN ACTION		101
6	THE IPD PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SURVEY	103
	Methodology - Use of performance management - Features of performance management - Effectiveness of key features - Views on different aspects of performance management - Rating - Who keeps the documentation? - Evaluation of performance management - Criteria for measuring performance - Views about performance management - Changes to performance management - Impact on performance management - Development of performance management
7	PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT IN PRACTICE	111
	Performance management as an interlinked process - Performance management as a continuous process - Increasing emphasis on inputs - Focus on development - Line-manager ownership of performance management - Rejection of bureaucracy - Conclusions
8	CASE-STUDIES IN PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	127
	The Automobile Association (AA) - AA Insurance -

Bass Brewers - BP Exploration (BPX) - Corporation of London - New Forest District Council - United Distillers - Victoria and Albert Museum - Zeneca Pharmaceuticals

9 WHAT PEOPLE FEEL ABOUT PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT: FOCUS GROUPS AND INTERVIEWS 169

Introduction: the nature of the research - Focus groups: organisation A - Focus groups: organisation B - Focus groups: organisation C - Focus groups: organisation D - Focus groups: organisation E - Focus groups: organisation F - Overall comments on the focus-group findings - What individuals feel about performance management - Trade-union views

10 WHAT PEOPLE FEEL ABOUT PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT: ATTITUDE SURVEYS 197

General responses - Responses from individuals - Responses from line managers - Observations

11 THE IMPACT OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 204

Measuring contribution and impact - The relationship between performance management and organisational performance - Other contributions from performance management - Conclusions

PART III: THE APPLICATION OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT 215

12 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AND DEVELOPMENT 217

The conceptual framework - Performance and development reviews as learning events - Personal development planning

13 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AND PAY 238

The link between performance management and pay -

VIII CONTENTS

Approaches to contingency pay - Reconciling performance management and pay - Performance-related pay (PRP) - Competence-related pay - Team-based pay - Contribution-related pay - Performance management and job evaluation
14 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT FOR TEAMS	256
Teamworking - Performance measures for teams - Team performance-management processes
PART IV: PERFORMANCE-MANAGEMENT PROCESSES	267
15 MEASURING PERFORMANCE	269
Why measure? - Measurement issues - What should be measured - Criteria for performance measures - Classification of measures - Expressing measures - Focus of performance measures - Types of measure: organisational - Types of measure: team - Types of measure: individual - Defining performance measures - Obtaining and analysing information for measurement purposes - Performance indicators
16 AGREEING OBJECTIVES AND PERFORMANCE STANDARDS	286
Objectives - Performance standards
17 COMPETENCE AND COMPETENCY ANALYSIS	296
Competence and competency defined - Competence analysis - Competency analysis
18 360-DEGREE FEEDBACK	313
360-degree feedback defined - Uses of 360-degree feedback - Rationale for 360-degree feedback - 360-degree feedback: methodology - Development and implementation - 360-degree feedback: advantages and disadvantages - 360-degree feedback: criteria for success - SHL survey results - IPD survey results

19	CONDUCTING PERFORMANCE AND DEVELOPMENT REVIEWS	329
	Key aspects of performance and development reviews - The basis of the performance and development review - Preparing for the meeting - Guidelines for the meeting - Conducting a constructive review meeting - Performance review skills
20	COACHING AND COUNSELLING	337
	Coaching - Counselling
21	PERFORMANCE PROBLEM-SOLVING	342
	The overall approach - Addressing performance problems - Managing underperformers - Handling problems at performance review meetings - Performance management and discipline
	PART V: DEVELOPING AND MAINTAINING PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	355
22	INTRODUCING PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	357
	The development framework - Environmental (cultural and structural) factors - Performance-management development programme - Case-studies on developing and implementing performance management: HR consultancy - Edinburgh City Council - Cummins Engine Company - Car Manufacturer - Food Manufacturer - Kent County Council - Financial services organisation - Utilities-sector organisation -
23	LEARNING ABOUT PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	371
	The approach to performance-management training - Objectives - The whys and wherefores - Contribution - Skills - Methods
24	EVALUATING PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT	378
	Areas for examination - Diagnostic check-list: evaluation - Evaluation methods

X CONTENTS

PART VI: CONCLUSIONS	v	383
25 THE REALITY OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT		385
Overall findings of the research - Best practice - Views about performance management - Problems/issues identified by field visits - Conclusion: key issues - Keys to success
APPENDICES		395
A: THE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SURVEY QUESTIONNAIRE		395
B: THE EMPLOYEE ATTITUDE SURVEY		403
C: EXAMPLES OF PERFORMANCE-MANAGEMENT DOCUMENTATION		408
D: AN ANALYSIS OF THE RESULTS OF THE IPD SURVEY		425
E: PERFORMANCE-MANAGEMENT TRAINING AT ZENECA PHARMACEUTICALS		443
References		446
Author index		458
Subject index		461